EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

The Social Welfare (Consolidated Claims, Payments and Control) (Amendment) (No. 10) (Income Disregard) Regulations 2022 (S.I. No. 397 of 2022) provided that certain income received (up to a maximum of €269.23 weekly which equates to €14,000 per annum) by a person through renting out a room in their home to a person who is not an employee or an immediate family member was to be disregarded in the assessment of means for the purposes of weekly social assistance payments, increases for qualified adults and the Working Family Payment.

These Regulations amend the definition of “home” in article 3 to extend the definition to include:

- (a) those who move out of their home under the Nursing Homes Support Scheme (alternatively known as Fair Deal), and
- (b) Local authority tenants who rent out a room to a student under the “Room for a Student – Local Authority Scheme”.

The effect of this amendment is to extend the circumstances whereby a person can rent out a room in their home while still availing of the income disregard for the rental of the room.
