SCHEDULE

PART I

Interpretation

In this Order:—

A word or expression that is used in this Order which is also used in the Establishment Order has, unless the contrary intention appears, the meaning in this Order that it has in the Establishment Order.

Workers to Whom this Order Applies

This Order applies to workers to whom the Establishment Order applies (the scope of which is set out in the Schedule to that Order).

PART II

STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Section 1

RATES OF REMUNERATION

(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this section a worker to whom this Order applies shall be remunerated by his or her employer at the rate of €10.75 per hour.

Where composite rates of pay higher than the rates of pay provided for in this section are paid to workers, it shall be necessary for the employer to keep such records as are necessary to show that the above Rates of Remuneration, as defined in this section, are being complied with.

(2)(a) A worker who has not attained the age of 18 years shall be remunerated at an hourly rate of pay that is not less than 70 per cent of the rate specified in paragraph (1)

(b) A worker who enters into employment for the first time after attaining the age of 18 years or, having entered into employment before attaining the age of 18 years and continues in employment on attaining that age, shall be remunerated at an hourly rate that is not less than:—
(I) In the case of a worker commencing employment for the first time after attaining the age of 18 years:—

(i) in his or her first year after having commenced employment, 80 per cent of the rate specified in paragraph (1);

(ii) in his or her second year after commencing employment, 90 per cent of the rate specified in paragraph (1).

(II) In the case of a worker having entered into employment before attaining the age of 18 years and continuing in employment on attaining that age:—

(i) in his or her first year after having attained the age of 18 years, 80 per cent of the rate specified in paragraph (1); and

(ii) in his or her second year after having attained that age, 90 per cent of the rate specified in paragraph (1).

(c) Where a worker who has attained the age of 18 years undergoes a course of study or training authorised by the employer within the workplace or elsewhere during normal working hours, such courses or training to be prescribed in regulations made by the Minister pursuant to section 3 of the Act of 2000 for the purposes of section 16 of that Act, the worker shall be remunerated by his or her employer in respect of his or her working hours at a rate of pay that is not less than the following:

(i) in respect of the first one-third period (but not exceeding 12 months) of the total study or training period, 75 per cent of the rate specified in paragraph (1);

(ii) in respect of the second one-third period (but not exceeding 12 months) of the total study or training period, 80 per cent of the rate specified in paragraph (1);

(iii) in respect of the third one-third period (but not exceeding 12 months) of the total study or training period, 90 per cent of the rate specified in paragraph (1).

The conditions specified at section 16 of the Act of 2000 shall apply, with necessary modifications, to the application of this subparagraph.

(3) Overtime rates shall apply as follows:

(a) all hours worked in excess of an average 48 hours per week in the roster cycle will be paid at a rate of time and a half;

(b) a rostered cycle shall be a predetermined working pattern, which can be up to a maximum of six weeks, which has been issued to the employee in writing prior to the commencement of the roster cycle.
Section 2

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- After 42 months’ service 26 weeks’ basic pay, less Social Welfare

An employer shall ensure that appropriate physical and psychological support is available, on request, to any employee who has been subjected to violence as a result of carrying out his/her duties. (Ref: PSA Standards 28 of 2013 Section 4.6.7)

(8) Certificate of Service

Each worker shall be entitled to receive from his/her employer a certificate of service showing the period of their employment and the length of his/her service.

(9) Sick Pay Scheme

(a) The Sick Pay Scheme will be non-contributory.

(b) No payment will be made for the first 3 days of any absence.

(c) The employer must be contacted at least 1 hour before the rostered commencement time on the first day of absence.

(d) Benefit will only be payable where a medical certificate, signed by a medical practitioner and specifying the nature of the illness, is submitted on the fourth day of absence. Medical certificates must be submitted on a weekly basis thereafter.
(e) The Sick Pay scheme will apply on a calendar year basis, either from 1st January to 31st December or in line with the holiday year as it applies in each company.

(f) The Scheme will apply to full-time workers based on a 39 hour week, and part-time workers on a pro rata basis.

(g) Any employee found to be abusing the Sick Pay Scheme will be subject to disciplinary procedures up to and including dismissal.

(h) The employer will reserve the right to refer an employee for an assessment by the Company doctor. The cost of the referral will be met by the employer.

(i) The Sick Pay Scheme will not cover absences arising from or relating to the following:

1. Traffic accidents (excluding those incurred during the course of employment)
2. Substance abuse
3. Sports injuries
4. Injuries sustained while working for another employer.

(10) Benefits

Employees will be entitled to the following benefit:

- After 2 years’ service — 3 weeks’ benefit
- After 3 years’ service — 4 weeks’ benefit
- After 4 years’ service — 5 weeks’ benefit

Benefit will be €120 euro per rostered week, or pro rata.

Employees will retain the Social Welfare payment and it is their responsibility to apply for and collect this payment.

There will be no transfer of benefit from one year to the next.

(11) Training

Where training is provided for and paid by the Company for new entrants and the employee leaves the Company:

- within 3 months, the Company can deduct 16 hours’ pay for training
- after 3 months up to 6 months the Company can deduct 8 hours’ pay for training
(12) Uniforms

Subject to normal wear and tear the cost of all uniform items supplied and provided to employees during their employment will be borne by the employer subject to the following:

- if an employee leaves the organisation within 3 months of the issuance of uniform item(s) to him/her, the employer may deduct 100% of the actual verified cost of the uniform item(s);

- if an employee leaves the organisation after 3 months but before 6 months of the issuance of uniform item(s) to him/her, the employer may deduct 50% of the actual verified cost of the uniform item(s);

- where an employee leaves an organisation and the uniform items are not returned to the organisation, the cost of the uniform items may be deducted from any payment due to the employee.
