EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation)

Section 101(4A) of the Employment Equality Act 1998 (inserted by section 17 of the Credit Guarantee (Amendment) Act 2016 (No. 1 of 2016)) provides that a person who has referred a complaint relating to dismissal under both the Unfair Dismissals Act 1977 and the Employment Equality Act 1998 to the Director General of the Workplace Relations Commission has to elect between one or the other by a prescribed date (or “the relevant date”) to be inferred from regulations by the Minister. If the person fails to elect by this date the discriminatory dismissal complaint will be deemed to have been withdrawn.

These Regulations prescribe that the “relevant date” for the purposes of Section 101(4A) of the Employment Equality Act 1998 shall be 42 days from the date of notification to the employee concerned who has referred a claim under Section 77 of the Employment Equality Act 1998 and a claim for redress under the Unfair Dismissals Act 1977 in respect of dismissal to the Director General of the Workplace Relations Commission. The “notification” for the purposes of these Regulations is the notification from the Workplace Relations Commission informing the employee concerned that subsection (4A) of section 101 applies in relation to the aforementioned claim under the Employment Equality Act 1998 and the claim for redress under the Unfair Dismissals Act 1977.
