(c) in the year of re-entry to an approved course,

is at least 23 years old.”.

GIVEN under my Official Seal,
20 June 2016.

LEO VARADKAR,
Minister for Social Protection.
EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

Sections 68A and 148 of the Social Welfare Consolidation Act 2005 provide that, subject to exceptions to be provided for by regulation, a person is disqualified from Jobseeker’s Benefit or Jobseeker’s Allowance while that person is attending a course of study. In respect of second level education, a person is regarded as attending a course of study for a period of three months immediately following the completion or leaving by that person of second level education.

Articles 47A and 121 of the Social Welfare (Consolidated Claims, Payments and Control) Regulations 2007 (S.I. No. 142 of 2007) currently provide for two exceptions to the disqualification from Jobseeker’s Benefit or Jobseeker’s Allowance in accordance with sections 68A and 148 of the Social Welfare Consolidation Act 2005 while a person is attending a course of study. These exceptions apply to—— mature students in respect of the interval between the end of one academic year and the beginning of the next, and — long-term unemployed persons under the age of 21 years who engage in certain approved educational, training or development activities.

Currently, participants on the Department of Education and Skills’ Youthreach programme who return to second chance education (i.e. undertake a Junior Certificate or Leaving Certificate course on a Youthreach programme) are not exempt from the three month disqualification for Jobseeker’s Benefit or Jobseeker’s Allowance following the completion or the leaving by that person of that second chance education.

These Regulations replace articles 47A and 121 to provide for a third exception to the disqualification for Jobseeker’s Benefit or Jobseeker’s Allowance while a person is attending a course of study. The three month disqualification that currently applies to Youthreach participants will now no longer apply.

The Regulations also update the references to relevant statutes and regulations as respects the application of the existing exemption for mature students.
