1. In this Order—

the “Act of 2004” means the Residential Tenancies Act 2004, as amended; the “Board” means the Residential Tenancies Board as established by section 150 of the Act of 2004;

a “determination order” shall be interpreted having regard to the provisions of section 121 of the Act of 2004.

2. (1) All applications by the Board or by a party mentioned in a determination order under section 124 of the Act of 2004 for enforcement of a determination order must be made by way of notice of application.

(2) Applications under this rule must be brought in the court area in which the tenancy or dwelling concerned is or was situated.

(3) The notice of application must be in Form No. 40C.01, Schedule C, modified as appropriate to the case, and must include particulars of the relief sought appropriate to the case.

(4) The notice of application must be entitled in the matter of section 124 of the Residential Tenancies Act 2004, as amended and must contain the name and address of the applicant as claimant and the name and address of the respondent.

(5) The notice of application must set out the grounds on which the applicant relies for the reliefs sought and must have annexed thereto the original determination order or a certified copy of same, certified by the applicant as being a true copy of the determination order. The return date of the notice of application must be not less than 21 days after the date on which the notice of application is issued.

(6) The notice of application must be supported by a grounding affidavit setting out and verifying the facts relied on in the application. Copies of the affidavit and any exhibits must be served with the notice of application on the respondent.

(7) The respondent must be served not later than 21 days before the return date where service is by registered post or not less than seven days before the return date where service is effected personally or in accordance with sub-rule (9).

(8) The original notice of application and a statutory declaration as to the service of the notice of application on the respondent must be lodged with the Clerk not later than four days before the return date.

Such notice must be served on the Board by leaving a true copy of same at the registered offices of the Board or by pre-paid registered post to the registered offices of the Board.

(11) Save by special leave of the Court, all applications under section 124 of the Act of 2004 must be heard on affidavit evidence or as may be determined by the Court.
