- (a) a human sperm, which is formed in the body of and provided by a man, or
- (b) a human egg, which is formed in the body of and provided by a woman;

“intending mother” means, in relation to a DAHR procedure, a woman who requests the performance of the procedure for the purpose of her becoming the mother of a child born as a result of the procedure;

“intending parent” means, in relation to a DAHR procedure, a person who intends to be the parent, under section 5, of a child born as a result of the procedure, and includes an intending mother;

“Minister” means the Minister for Health;

“mother” means, in relation to a child, the woman who gives birth to the child;

“operator” means, in relation to a DAHR facility, the person who owns or manages the facility or is otherwise responsible for the running of the facility;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations under section 41;

“Register” means the register established under section 33;

“registered medical practitioner” means a person who is a registered medical practitioner within the meaning of section 2 of the Medical Practitioners Act 2007;

“registered nurse” means a person whose name is entered for the time being in the nurses division of the register of nurses and midwives established under section 46 of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2011;

“relevant donor” means, in relation to a donor-conceived child—

- (a) subject to paragraph (b), the donor of a gamete that was used in the DAHR procedure that resulted in the birth of the donor-conceived child, and
- (b) in the case of a donor-conceived child who is born as a result of a DAHR procedure or a further DAHR procedure in which a donated embryo was used—
 - (i) a donor of the embryo who provided a gamete that was used in the formation of the embryo, and

- (ii) where applicable, the donor of a gamete that was used in the formation of the embryo.

Parentage of child born as a result of DAHR procedure

5. (1) The parents of a donor-conceived child who is born as a result of a DAHR procedure to which subsection (8) applies are—
- (a) the mother, and
 - (b) the husband, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, of the mother.
- (2) Where a donor-conceived child is born as a result of a DAHR procedure, other than a DAHR procedure to which subsection (8) applies, the mother alone shall be the parent of that child.
- (3) Where a person is, under subsection (1) or (2), the parent of a child, he or she shall have all parental rights and duties in respect of the child.
- (4) In deducing any relationship for the purposes of any enactment, the relationship between every donor-conceived child and his or her parent or parents shall be determined in accordance with this section and all other relationships shall be determined accordingly.
- (5) A donor of a gamete that is used in a DAHR procedure—
- (a) is not the parent of a child born as a result of that procedure, and
 - (b) has no parental rights or duties in respect of the child.
- (6) A donor of an embryo that is used in a DAHR procedure—
- (a) is not the parent of a child born as a result of that procedure, and
 - (b) has no parental rights or duties in respect of the child.
- (7) On and after the coming into operation of this section, a reference in any enactment to—
- (a) a mother or parent of a child shall be construed as not including a woman who is the donor of a gamete or embryo that was used in a DAHR procedure that resulted in the birth of the child, and
 - (b) a father or parent of a child shall be construed as not including a man who is the donor of a gamete or embryo that was used in a DAHR procedure that resulted in the birth of the child.
- (8) This subsection applies to a DAHR procedure in relation to which—
- (a) the intending mother has consented under section 9 to the parentage under subsection (1) of the child born as a result of the procedure, where her declaration under section 9(1)(c) includes a statement referred to in section 9(3)(d) in respect of her husband, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, and

- (b) the husband, civil partner or cohabitant of the intending mother referred to in paragraph (a) has consented under section 11 to the parentage under subsection (1) of the child referred to in that paragraph.

Consent to use of gamete in DAHR procedure

6. (1) A person consents under this section to the use in a DAHR procedure of a gamete provided by him or her where he or she—
- (a) has attained the age of 18 years,
 - (b) has received the information referred to in section 7, and
 - (c) makes a declaration in accordance with subsections (2) and (3).
- (2) A declaration under subsection (1)(c) shall be made before the donation is made, and shall be in writing, dated, and signed by the person in the presence of a person authorised in that behalf by the operator of the donation facility where the gamete is provided.
- (3) A declaration under subsection (1)(c) shall be in such form as may be prescribed and shall include the following statements:
- (a) that the person has received the information referred to in section 7;
 - (b) subject to subsection (4), that the person consents to the use in a DAHR procedure of the gamete provided by him or her;
 - (c) that, in the event that the gamete is used in a procedure referred to in paragraph (b), the person consents to the provision to the Minister of the information referred to in section 28(3)(a) in respect of him or her;
 - (d) that the person is aware that he or she shall not be the parent of any child born as a result of a procedure referred to in paragraph (b);
 - (e) that, in the event that a child is born as a result of a procedure referred to in paragraph (b), the person—
 - (i) consents to the recording on the Register of the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in respect of the person, and
 - (ii) understands that the child may, in accordance with section 35, access the information referred to in subparagraph (i) and seek to contact him or her.
- (4) In making a statement referred to in subsection (3)(b), a person may state that his or her consent is restricted to the use of the gamete in a DAHR procedure performed on the request of—
- (a) the intending mother specified in the statement, where the DAHR procedure concerned is one to which section 25(3)(b)(i) applies, or
 - (b) the intending parents specified in the statement, where the DAHR procedure concerned is one to which section 25(3)(b)(ii) applies.

- (5) A person's consent under this section to the use of his or her gamete in a DAHR procedure may not be restricted other than as provided for in subsection (4).

Information to be provided for purposes of section 6

7. The operator of a donation facility shall, before a person makes a declaration under section 6(1)(c), inform him or her—
- (a) that, in the event that he or she consents under section 6 to the use in a DAHR procedure of a gamete provided by him or her—
 - (i) he or she is entitled to seek the information referred to in section 34(2), and
 - (ii) where such a DAHR procedure is performed, he or she consents to the provision to the Minister of the information referred to in section 28(3)(a) in respect of him or her,
 - (b) that, in the event that a child is born as a result of the procedure referred to in paragraph (a)—
 - (i) he or she shall not be the parent of that child,
 - (ii) the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in relation to him or her shall be recorded on the Register,
 - (iii) the child may, in accordance with section 35, access the information referred to in subparagraph (ii) and seek to contact him or her,
 - (iv) the person's entitlement to obtain information recorded on the Register is subject to section 36 and is otherwise restricted to the information referred to in section 34(2), and
 - (v) having regard to the child's right to his or her identity, it is desirable that he or she keep updated, in accordance with section 38(1), the information in relation to him or her that is recorded on the Register,
- and
- (c) of his or her right under section 8, in the event that he or she consents under section 6 to the use of his or her gamete in a DAHR procedure, to revoke that consent.

Revocation of consent given under section 6

8. (1) Subject to this section, a donor of a gamete may, by notice in writing to the operator of the donation facility to which his or her declaration under section 6(1)(c) was made, revoke his or her consent under that section.
- (2) A revocation of consent under subsection (1) shall have no effect in respect of a gamete to which the consent relates that has been used at a DAHR facility in the formation of an embryo before the date on which the notice under that subsection is received by the operator of the DAHR facility concerned.

Consent of intending mother

9. (1) An intending mother consents under this section to the parentage, under subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be, of section 5 of a child born to her as a result of a DAHR procedure where, before that procedure is performed, she—
- (a) has attained the age of 21 years,
 - (b) has received the information referred to in section 13, and
 - (c) makes a declaration in accordance with subsections (2) and (3).
- (2) A declaration under subsection (1)(c) shall be made before the DAHR procedure is performed and shall be in writing, dated, and signed by the intending mother in the presence of a person authorised in that behalf by the operator of the DAHR facility where the DAHR procedure is to be performed.
- (3) A declaration under subsection (1)(c) shall be in such form as may be prescribed and shall include the following statements:
- (a) that the intending mother has received the information referred to in section 13;
 - (b) that, in the event that a DAHR procedure is performed, the intending mother—
 - (i) consents to the provision to the Minister of the information referred to in section 28(3)(b) in respect of her, and
 - (ii) agrees to comply with her obligations under section 27;
 - (c) that the intending mother is aware that—
 - (i) the donor of a gamete or embryo used in the DAHR procedure shall not be the parent of any child born as a result of that procedure, and
 - (ii) she shall be the mother of such a child;
 - (d) where applicable, that the intending mother consents to her husband, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, being the parent under section 5(1)(b) of any child born as a result of the DAHR procedure;
 - (e) that, in the event that a child is born as a result of the DAHR procedure, the intending mother—
 - (i) consents to the recording on the Register of the information specified in section 33(3)(c) in respect of her,
 - (ii) consents to the recording on the Register of the information specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 33(3) in respect of the child, and
 - (iii) understands that the child may, in accordance with section 35, access the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in respect of a person who is, in relation to the child, a relevant donor and seek to contact him or her.

Revocation of consent given under section 9

- 10. (1) Subject to this section, an intending mother may, by notice in writing to the operator of the DAHR facility to which her declaration under section 9(1)(c) was made, revoke her consent under that section.
- (2) A revocation of consent under subsection (1) shall have no effect in respect of a DAHR procedure to which the consent relates that has been performed before the notice under that subsection is received by the operator of the DAHR facility at which the procedure was performed.

Consent of husband, civil partner or cohabitant of intending mother

- 11. (1) A person, being the husband, civil partner or cohabitant of the intending mother concerned, consents under this section to be the parent, under section 5(1)(b), of a child born as a result of a DAHR procedure where, before that procedure is performed—
- (a) the person has attained the age of 21 years,
 - (b) the intending mother has consented under section 9 to a DAHR procedure, and her declaration under section 9(1)(c) includes a statement referred to in section 9(3)(d) in respect of the person,
 - (c) the person has received the information referred to in section 13, and
 - (d) the person makes a declaration in accordance with subsections (2) and (3).
- (2) A declaration under subsection (1)(d) shall be made before the DAHR procedure is performed and shall be in writing, dated, and signed by the person in the presence of a person authorised in that behalf by the operator of the DAHR facility where the DAHR procedure is to be performed.
- (3) A declaration under subsection (1)(d) shall be in such form as may be prescribed and shall include the following statements:
- (a) that the person is the husband, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, of the intending mother;
 - (b) that the person has received the information referred to in section 13;
 - (c) that, in the event that a DAHR procedure is performed, the person—
 - (i) consents to the provision to the Minister of the information referred to in section 28(3)(b) in respect of him or her, and
 - (ii) agrees to comply with his or her obligations under section 27;
 - (d) that the person is aware that—
 - (i) the donor of a gamete or embryo used in the DAHR procedure shall not be the parent of any child born as a result of that procedure, and
 - (ii) by consenting in accordance with this section, he or she shall, under this Act, together with the mother of the child, be the parent of such a child;

- (e) that, in the event that a child is born as a result of the DAHR procedure, the person—
- (i) consents to the recording on the Register of the information specified in section 33(3)(c) in respect of him or her,
 - (ii) consents to the recording on the Register of the information specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 33(3) in respect of the child, and
 - (iii) understands that the child may, in accordance with section 35, access the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in respect of a person who is, in relation to the child, a relevant donor and seek to contact him or her.

Revocation of consent given under section 11

- 12. (1) Subject to this section, a person may, by notice in writing to the operator of the DAHR facility to which his or her declaration under section 11(1)(d) was made, revoke his or her consent under that section.
- (2) A revocation of consent under subsection (1) shall have no effect in respect of a DAHR procedure to which the consent relates that has been performed before the notice under that subsection is received by the operator of the DAHR facility at which the procedure was performed.

Information to be provided for purposes of sections 9 and 11

- 13. The operator of a DAHR facility shall, before a person makes a declaration under section 9(1)(c) or section 11(1)(d), inform him or her—
- (a) that, in the event that a DAHR procedure is performed, the information referred to in section 28(3)(b) in respect of him or her shall be provided to the Minister,
 - (b) that, in the event that he or she consents in accordance with section 9 or 11, as the case may be, and a child is born as a result of the DAHR procedure—
 - (i) he or she shall be the parent of the child,
 - (ii) the donor of a gamete or embryo used in the DAHR procedure shall not be the parent of the child,
 - (iii) the information specified in section 33(3) in respect of the intending parent or parents, the child and a person who is, in relation to the child, a relevant donor, shall be recorded on the Register,
 - (iv) the child may, in accordance with section 35, access the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in respect of the donor referred to in subparagraph (iii) and seek to contact him or her, and
 - (v) his or her entitlement to obtain information from the Register shall be restricted to the information referred to in section 34(1),
 - (c) of his or her obligation under section 27 to provide the information specified in that section to the DAHR facility concerned, and

- (d) of his or her right under section 10 or 12, as the case may be, in the event that he or she consents under section 9 or 11, to revoke that consent.

Consent to use of embryo in DAHR procedure

14. (1) Where—

- (a) an embryo is formed for the purposes of an assisted human reproduction procedure, and
 - (b) the woman and man on whose request the assisted human reproduction procedure is to be performed do not wish for the embryo to be used in such a procedure,
- the woman and man may consent, under this section, to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the woman and man referred to in subsection (1) may consent under this section to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure in respect of which neither of them is an intending parent.
 - (3) An embryo referred to in subsection (2) may be used in a DAHR procedure to which that subsection applies only where both the woman and the man concerned have consented under that subsection.
 - (4) A man to whom subsection (1) applies may consent under this section to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure in respect of which—
 - (a) the woman to whom subsection (1) applies is the intending mother, and
 - (b) he is not an intending parent.
 - (5) A person consents under this section to the use of an embryo in a DAHR procedure where he or she—
 - (a) receives the information referred to in section 15, and
 - (b) makes a declaration in accordance with subsections (6) and (7).
 - (6) A declaration under subsection (5)(b) shall be made before the donation is made and shall be in writing, dated, and signed by the person in the presence of a person authorised in that behalf by the operator of a DAHR facility.
 - (7) A declaration under subsection (5)(b) shall include the following statements:
 - (a) that the person has received the information referred to in section 15;
 - (b) subject to subsection (8), that the person consents to the use in a DAHR procedure of the embryo;
 - (c) that the person is aware that he or she shall not be the parent of any child born as a result of the DAHR procedure;
 - (d) that, in the event that the embryo is used in a DAHR procedure, the person consents to the provision to the Minister of the information referred to in section 28(3)(a) in respect of him or her;

- (e) that, in the event that a child is born as a result of a DAHR procedure, the person—
 - (i) consents to the recording in the Register of the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in respect of him or her, and
 - (ii) understands that the child may, in accordance with section 35, access the information referred to in subparagraph (i), and seek to contact him or her.
- (8) In making a statement referred to in subsection (7)(b), a person may state that his or her consent is restricted to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure performed on the request of—
 - (a) an intending mother specified in the statement, where the DAHR procedure concerned is one to which section 25(3)(b)(i) applies, or
 - (b) the intending parents specified in the statement, where the DAHR procedure concerned is one to which section 25(3)(b)(ii) applies.
- (9) A person’s consent under this section to the use of an embryo in a DAHR procedure may not be restricted other than as provided for in subsection (8).
- (10) In this section, “assisted human reproduction procedure” means a procedure performed with the objective of it resulting in the implantation of an embryo in the womb of the woman on whose request the procedure is performed, where—
 - (a) the embryo has been or will be formed from a gamete provided by the woman and a gamete provided by a man, and
 - (b) the procedure is performed for the purpose of the woman and the man becoming the parents of a child born as a result of the procedure.

Information to be provided for purposes of section 14

- 15. The operator of a DAHR facility shall, before a person makes a declaration under section 14(5)(b), inform him or her—
- (a) that, in the event that he or she consents under section 14 to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure—
 - (i) he or she is entitled to seek the information referred to in section 34(2), and
 - (ii) where such a DAHR procedure is performed, he or she consents to the provision to the Minister of the information referred to in section 28(3)(a) in respect of him or her,
 - (b) that, in the event that a child is born as a result of the DAHR procedure referred to in paragraph (a)—
 - (i) he or she shall not be the parent of that child,
 - (ii) the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in relation to him or her shall be recorded on the Register,

- (iii) the child may, in accordance with section 35, access the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in respect of him or her and seek to contact him or her,
 - (iv) the person's entitlement to obtain information recorded on the Register is subject to section 36 and is otherwise restricted to the information referred to in section 34(2), and
 - (v) having regard to the child's right to his or her identity, it is desirable that he or she keep updated, in accordance with section 38(1), the information in relation to him or her that is recorded on the Register,
- and
- (c) of his or her right under section 18, in the event that he or she consents under section 14 to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure, to revoke that consent.

Consent to use of embryo in further DAHR procedure

16. (1) Where—

- (a) an embryo is formed for the purposes of a DAHR procedure, and
- (b) (i) in the case of a DAHR procedure to which section 25(3)(b)(ii) applies, the intending parents do not wish for the embryo to be used in a DAHR procedure in respect of which they are the intending parents, or
- (ii) in the case of a DAHR procedure to which section 25(3)(b)(i) applies, the intending mother does not wish for the embryo to be used in a DAHR procedure in respect of which she is the intending mother, a person referred to in paragraph (b) may consent, under this section, to the use of the embryo in a further DAHR procedure.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), each intending parent referred to in subsection (1)(b)(i) may consent under this section to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure in respect of which neither of them is an intending parent.
- (3) An embryo referred to in subsection (2) may be used in a further DAHR procedure to which that subsection applies only where each intending parent has consented under that subsection.
- (4) An intending parent to whom subsection (1)(b)(i) applies, who is not the intending mother, may consent under this section to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure in respect of which—
 - (a) the intending mother is the intending mother, and
 - (b) he or she is not an intending parent.
- (5) A person consents under this section to the use of an embryo in a further DAHR procedure where he or she—
 - (a) receives the information referred to in section 17, and

- (b) makes a declaration in accordance with subsections (6) and (7).
- (6) A declaration under subsection (5)(b) shall be made before the donation is made and shall be in writing, dated, and signed by the person in the presence of a person authorised in that behalf by the operator of a DAHR facility.
- (7) A declaration under subsection (5)(b) shall include the following statements:
- (a) that the person has received the information referred to in section 17;
 - (b) subject to subsection (8), that the person consents to the use in a further DAHR procedure of the embryo;
 - (c) that the person is aware that he or she shall not be the parent of any child born as a result of a further DAHR procedure;
 - (d) where the embryo was formed from a gamete provided by the person—
 - (i) that, in the event that the embryo is used in a further DAHR procedure, the person consents to the provision to the Minister of the information referred to in section 28(3)(a) in respect of him or her, and
 - (ii) that, in the event that a child is born as a result of a further DAHR procedure, the person—
 - (I) consents to the recording in the Register of the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in respect of him or her, and
 - (II) understands that the child may, in accordance with section 35, access the information referred to in clause (I), and seek to contact him or her.
- (8) In making a statement referred to in subsection (7)(b), a person may state that his or her consent is restricted to the use of the embryo in a further DAHR procedure performed on the request of—
- (a) an intending mother specified in the statement, where the further DAHR procedure concerned is one to which section 25(3)(b)(i) applies, or
 - (b) the intending parents specified in the statement, where the further DAHR procedure concerned is one to which section 25(3)(b)(ii) applies.
- (9) A person's consent under this section to the use of an embryo in a further DAHR procedure may not be restricted other than as provided for in subsection (8).
- (10) In this section “further DAHR procedure”, means a DAHR procedure to which subsection (2) or (4) applies.

Information to be provided for purposes of section 16

17. (1) The operator of a DAHR facility shall, before a person makes a declaration under section 16(5)(b), inform him or her—
- (a) that, in the event that he or she consents under section 16 to the use of the embryo in a further DAHR procedure, and a child is born as a result of that procedure, he or she shall not be the parent of the child,

- (b) of his or her right under section 18, in the event that he or she consents under section 16 to the use of the embryo in a further DAHR procedure, to revoke that consent, and
 - (c) where subsection (2) applies, of the matters specified in that subsection.
- (2) Where a person referred to in subsection (1) has provided a gamete that was used in the formation of the embryo concerned, the facility referred to in that subsection shall, in addition, inform the person that—
- (a) in the event that he or she consents under section 16 to the use of the embryo in a further DAHR procedure—
 - (i) he or she is entitled to seek the information referred to in section 34(2), and
 - (ii) where such a further DAHR procedure is performed, he or she consents to the provision to the Minister of the information referred to in section 28(3)(a) in respect of him or her,and
 - (b) in the event that a child is born as a result of the further DAHR procedure—
 - (i) the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in relation to him or her shall be recorded on the Register,
 - (ii) the child may, in accordance with section 35, access the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in respect of him or her and seek to contact him or her,
 - (iii) the person's entitlement to obtain information recorded on the Register is subject to section 36 and is otherwise restricted to the information referred to in section 34(2), and
 - (iv) having regard to the child's right to his or her identity it is desirable that he or she keep updated, in accordance with section 38(1), the information in relation to him or her that is recorded on the Register.

Revocation of consent given under section 14 or 16

- 18. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a donor under section 14 or 16 of an embryo may, by notice in writing to the operator of the DAHR facility to which his or her declaration under section 14(5)(b) or section 16(5)(b), as the case may be, was made, revoke his or her consent under the relevant section.
- (2) A revocation of consent under subsection (1) shall have no effect in respect of a DAHR procedure or, as the case may be, a further DAHR procedure to which the consent relates that has been performed before the notice under that subsection is received by the operator of the DAHR facility at which the procedure is performed.

Payment of reasonable expenses

- 19. (1) The consent of a donor under section 6 shall not be valid where it is given in exchange for financial compensation in excess of the reasonable expenses associated with the provision of the gamete concerned or the giving of consent under that section.
- (2) The consent of a donor under section 14 or 16 shall not be valid where it is given in exchange for financial compensation in excess of the reasonable expenses specified in subsection (3)(a) or (c) associated with the giving of consent under that section.
- (3) In this section, “reasonable expenses” means, in relation to a donor, the donor’s—
- (a) travel costs,
 - (b) medical expenses, and
 - (c) any legal or counselling costs,
- incurred by him or her in relation to the provision of the gamete or, as the case may be, the giving of consent under this Part.

Child to whom this section applies

- 20. (1) This section applies to a child where—
- (a) the child was born in the State,
 - (b) the child was born as a result of a DAHR procedure that was performed before the date on which this section comes into operation that—
 - (i) was performed in the State, or
 - (ii) was performed outside the State, where the person who performed the procedure was authorised to do so under the law of the place where the procedure was performed,
 - (c) at the time when the DAHR procedure referred to in paragraph (b) was performed, a person was an intending parent of the child and was the only intending parent of the child,
 - (d) at the time referred to in paragraph (c) the person, other than the mother of the child, who provided a gamete that was used in the DAHR procedure—
 - (i) was unknown to the mother of the child and the person referred to in paragraph (c), and
 - (ii) was not an intending parent of the child,
 - (e) at the time of an application under section 21 or 22, as the case may be, the person referred to in paragraph (d) remains unknown to the mother of the child and the person referred to in paragraph (c), and
 - (f) the mother of the child is recorded as the mother of the child in a register of births and no person, or no person other than the person referred to in paragraph (c), is recorded in that register as the child’s father or parent.

- (2) In this section and sections 21 to 23—

“DAHR procedure” includes a DAHR procedure that is performed outside the State;

“intending parent” means, in relation to a child who is born as a result of a DAHR procedure, a person, other than the intending mother of the child who, at the time the DAHR procedure is performed, was aware of the performance of the procedure and undertook to care for, and exercise responsibilities towards, any child born as a result of the procedure, as if he or she were the parent of the child;

“register of births”, means a register of births maintained by An tArd-Chláraitheoir under section 13(1)(a) of the Civil Registration Act 2004, as amended, or under the repealed enactments (within the meaning of that Act).

Declaration by District Court of parentage of child to whom section 20 applies

- 21. (1) The persons specified in subsection (2) may jointly apply to the District Court in such manner as may be prescribed by rules of court for a declaration under this section that the person referred to in subsection (2)(b) is the parent of a child to whom section 20 applies.
- (2) An application for a declaration under this section may be made, in relation to a child to whom section 20 applies, by—
- (a) the mother of the child, and
 - (b) the person, referred to in section 20(1)(c), who was an intending parent of the child.
- (3) The child to whom an application for a declaration under this section relates shall be joined as a party to the proceedings.
- (4) An application under this section shall be grounded on an affidavit sworn by each applicant, stating that—
- (a) the child to whom the application relates is a child to whom section 20 applies,
 - (b) the applicant referred to in subsection (2)(b) was, at the time referred to in section 20(1)(c), the intending parent of the child, and
 - (c) he or she consents to the making of a declaration under this section.
- (5) On an application under this section the Court may, at any stage of the proceedings, of its own motion or on the application of any party to the proceedings, direct that all necessary papers in the matter be sent to the Attorney General.
- (6) Where on an application under this section the Attorney General requests to be made a party to the proceedings, the Court shall order that he or she shall be added as a party, and, whether or not he or she so requests, the Attorney General may argue before the Court any question in relation to the application which the Court considers necessary to have fully argued and take such other steps in relation thereto as he or she thinks necessary or expedient.

- (7) The Court may direct that notice of any application under this section shall be given to such other persons as the Court thinks fit and where notice is so given to any person the Court may, either of its own motion or on the application of that person or any party to the proceedings, order that that person shall be added as a party to those proceedings.
- (8) In deciding whether or not to make a declaration under this section the Court shall, to the extent possible given his or her age or understanding, give the child the opportunity to make his or her views on the matter known, and shall have regard to those views.
- (9) Where on an application under this section, the Court is satisfied that—
 - (a) the child is a child to whom section 20 applies, and
 - (b) where the child has not attained the age of 18 years, it is in the best interests of the child to make the declaration,it shall make a declaration that the applicant referred to in subsection (2)(b) is a parent of the child.
- (10) Any declaration made under this section shall be binding on the parties to the proceedings and any person claiming through a party to the proceedings, and where the Attorney General is made a party to the proceedings the declaration shall also be binding on the State.

Declaration by Circuit Court of parentage of child to whom section 20 applies

- 22. (1) The persons specified in subsection (2) may apply to the Circuit Court for a declaration under this section that a person named in the application (in this section referred to as a “relevant person”) is the parent of a child to whom section 20 applies.
- (2) An application for a declaration under this section may be made, in relation to a child to whom section 20 applies, by—
 - (a) the child,
 - (b) the mother of the child, or
 - (c) the relevant person.
 - (3) The child to whom an application for a declaration under this section relates shall be joined as a party to the proceedings.
 - (4) Subsections (5) to (8) of section 21 apply, with all necessary modifications, to an application under this section as they apply to an application under that section.
 - (5) An application under this section shall be accompanied by evidence that—
 - (a) the child concerned is a child to whom section 20 applies, and
 - (b) the relevant person was, at the time referred to in section 20(1)(c), an intending parent of the child concerned.

- (6) Subject to subsection (7), where on an application under this section it is proved on the balance of probabilities that—
- (a) the child concerned is a child to whom section 20 applies, and
 - (b) the relevant person was, at the time referred to in section 20(1)(c), an intending parent of the child concerned,
- the Circuit Court shall make a declaration that the relevant person is a parent of the child.
- (7) The Circuit Court shall not make a declaration under subsection (6) where it is satisfied that to do so—
- (a) would not be in the best interests of the child concerned, where the child has not attained the age of 18 years, or
 - (b) would be contrary to the interests of justice.
- (8) Any declaration made under this section shall be binding on the parties to the proceedings and any person claiming through a party to the proceedings, and where the Attorney General is made a party to the proceedings the declaration shall also be binding on the State.

Effect of declaration under section 21 or 22

- 23. Where a person is declared under section 21 or 22 to be a parent of a child, from the date on which the declaration is made—
- (a) the person shall be deemed to be the parent, under section 5(1)(b), of the child,
 - (b) the person, referred to in section 20(1)(d), who provided a gamete that was used in the DAHR procedure that resulted in the birth of the child—
 - (i) is not the parent of the child, and
 - (ii) has no parental rights or duties in respect of the child,and
 - (c) a reference in any enactment to a mother, father or parent of a child shall be construed as not including, in relation to the child to whom the declaration relates, the person referred to in paragraph (b).

PART 3

DONOR-ASSISTED HUMAN REPRODUCTION

Acquisition by operator of DAHR facility of gamete or embryo

- 24. (1) The operator of a DAHR facility shall not acquire for use in a DAHR procedure a gamete provided by a donor unless, at the time of such acquisition, he or she also acquires the information specified in subsection (3) in respect of the donor.

- (2) The operator of a DAHR facility shall not acquire an embryo for use in a DAHR procedure or a further DAHR procedure unless, at the time of such acquisition, he or she also acquires the information specified in subsection (3) in respect of—
- (a) the donor or, as the case may be, each donor of the embryo who provided a gamete that was used in the formation of the embryo, and
 - (b) where applicable, the donor of a gamete that was used in the formation of the embryo.
- (3) The information referred to in subsections (1) and (2), in relation to the donor concerned, is:
- (a) his or her name;
 - (b) his or her date and place of birth;
 - (c) his or her nationality;
 - (d) the date on which, and the place at which, he or she provided the gamete;
 - (e) his or her contact details.

Performance of DAHR procedure

- 25. (1) A person shall not perform a DAHR procedure unless the person is—
- (a) a registered medical practitioner, or
 - (b) a registered nurse.
- (2) A person shall not perform a DAHR procedure other than on the request of an intending parent.
- (3) A person shall not perform a DAHR procedure on the request of an intending parent unless—
- (a) he or she has first obtained the following information in respect of that intending parent—
 - (i) his or her name,
 - (ii) his or her date of birth, and
 - (iii) his or her address and contact details,and
 - (b) the following applies:
 - (i) where the intending mother is the only intending parent, she has consented under section 9 to the parentage under section 5 of a child born to her as a result of the procedure;
 - (ii) where the intending parents are the intending mother and her husband, civil partner or cohabitant—

- (I) the intending mother has consented under section 9 to the parentage under section 5 of a child born as a result of the procedure, and her declaration under section 9(1)(c) includes a statement referred to in section 9(3)(d) in respect of the husband, civil partner or cohabitant concerned, and
- (II) the husband, civil partner or cohabitant concerned has consented under section 11 to being the parent, under section 5, of a child born as a result of the procedure.

Use of gamete or embryo in DAHR procedure

26. (1) The operator of a DAHR facility shall not use or permit to be used in a DAHR procedure a gamete provided by a donor unless—
- (a) the gamete has been acquired in accordance with section 24(1), and
 - (b) the donor of that gamete—
 - (i) has consented under section 6 to the use of the gamete in a DAHR procedure, or
 - (ii) where the gamete is acquired from outside the State, has consented to the use of the gamete in a DAHR procedure, where that consent is substantially the same as that provided for in section 6.
- (2) The operator of a DAHR facility shall not use or permit to be used in a DAHR procedure or a further DAHR procedure an embryo unless—
- (a) it has acquired the embryo in accordance with section 24(2), and
 - (b) the donor, or as the case may be, each donor of the embryo—
 - (i) has consented under section 14 or 16, to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure or, as the case may be, a further DAHR procedure, or
 - (ii) where the embryo is acquired from outside the State, has consented to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure or a further DAHR procedure, where that consent is substantially the same as that provided for in section 14 or, as the case may be, section 16.
- (3) The operator of a DAHR facility shall not use or permit to be used in a DAHR procedure a gamete provided by a donor, where he or she has become aware that—
- (a) the consent of the donor under section 6 has been revoked under section 8, or
 - (b) in the case of a gamete to which subsection (1)(b)(ii) or (5) applies, the consent of the donor referred to in that subsection has been revoked.
- (4) The operator of a DAHR facility shall not use or permit to be used in a DAHR procedure or a further DAHR procedure an embryo where he or she has become aware that—
- (a) the consent of the donor under section 14 or, as the case may be, section 16, has been revoked under section 18, or

- (b) in the case of an embryo to which subsection (2)(b)(ii) or (6) applies, the consent of the donor referred to in that subsection has been revoked.
- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (1), for a period of 3 years from the date on which that subsection comes into operation, a gamete to which paragraph (a) of that subsection does not apply may be used in a DAHR procedure where—
- (a) the gamete concerned has been acquired before that date by the DAHR facility concerned,
 - (b) the donor of the gamete has consented to the use of the gamete in a DAHR procedure, and
 - (c) the intending parent is the parent of a child born as a result of a DAHR procedure performed before that date, where the gamete used in that procedure was provided by the same donor.
- (6) Subsection (2)(a) shall not apply to an embryo where—
- (a) the embryo was formed before the date on which the subsection comes into operation,
 - (b) the embryo was acquired by the DAHR facility before that date, and
 - (c) the donor or, as the case may be, each donor of the embryo has consented to the use of the embryo in a DAHR procedure or a further DAHR procedure.
- (7) Where an embryo to which subsection (6) applies is used in a DAHR procedure or a further DAHR procedure, nothing in this section shall operate to prevent the recording on the Register of the information specified in section 33(3)(d) in respect of the donor from whose gamete the embryo was formed.
- (8) The operator of a DAHR facility may use or permit to be used in a DAHR procedure an embryo that was formed before the date on which this subsection comes into operation, where—
- (a) the embryo has been formed for the purposes of the DAHR procedure,
 - (b) the donor of the gamete that was used in the formation of the embryo has consented to the use of the gamete in a DAHR procedure, and
 - (c) each person who, at the time of the formation of the embryo, was an intending parent, has consented under section 9, or as the case may be, section 11, to the parentage under section 5 of a child born as a result of the procedure.

Intending parent to provide information to DAHR facility following DAHR procedure

27. (1) Where a DAHR procedure is performed, the intending parent concerned shall, as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the fact, inform the operator of the DAHR facility concerned of the following:
- (a) whether the procedure has led to the pregnancy of the intending mother;
 - (b) where the procedure has led to the pregnancy of the intending mother, the date on which the intending mother is expected to give birth.

- (2) Where subsection (1)(b) applies, the intending parent concerned shall, as soon as practicable after the pregnancy of the intending mother has come to an end, inform the DAHR facility concerned of—
 - (a) whether the pregnancy resulted in the birth of a live child, and
 - (b) where the pregnancy resulted in the birth of a live child, the name, date and place of birth, sex and address of the child.
- (3) Where an intending parent does not comply with subsection (1) or (2), the operator of the DAHR facility concerned shall contact the intending parent concerned in order to obtain the information referred to in the subsection concerned.
- (4) Where an intending parent provides an operator of a DAHR facility with the information referred to in subsection (2)(b), the operator shall furnish the intending parent with a certificate under subsection (5).
- (5) A certificate under this subsection shall be in such form as may be prescribed and shall state—
 - (a) that a DAHR procedure was performed at the DAHR facility on the request of the intending parent or parents, and the date on which procedure was performed,
 - (b) in relation to the procedure referred to in paragraph (a), whether—
 - (i) one gamete provided by a donor was used in the procedure and, if so, whether that gamete was a human egg or a human sperm,
 - (ii) each gamete used in the procedure was provided by a donor, or
 - (iii) an embryo provided by a donor was used in the procedure,
 - (c) whether—
 - (i) the gamete referred to in paragraph (b) that was provided by a donor was one to which section 26(1) or, as the case may be, section 26(5), applied, or
 - (ii) where applicable, the embryo referred to in paragraph (b)(iii) was one to which subsection (2) or (6) of section 26 applied,
 - (d) that the intending mother concerned consented, under section 9, to the parentage under section 5 of a child born as a result of the procedure, and
 - (e) where applicable, that the husband, civil partner or cohabitant of the intending mother consented under section 11 to being the parent of a child born as a result of the procedure.

DAHR facility to retain and provide certain information

- 28. (1) An operator of a donation facility shall retain—
- (a) a written consent of a person made under section 6, and
 - (b) a record of the revocation, under section 8, by a person referred to in paragraph (a) of his or her consent.

- (2) An operator of a DAHR facility shall retain—
 - (a) a written consent of a person made under section 9, 11, 14 or 16, and
 - (b) a record of the revocation, under section 10, 12 or 18, as the case may be, by a person referred to in paragraph (a) of his or her consent.
- (3) Where a DAHR procedure is performed at a DAHR facility, the operator of the facility shall retain a record of—
 - (a) all information acquired under section 24 in respect of the donor concerned, and
 - (b) all information obtained under section 25(3)(a) in respect of the intending parent concerned.
- (4) The operator of a DAHR facility referred to in subsection (3) shall provide the Minister, for the purpose of the performance by the Minister of his or her functions under section 33, with the following information:
 - (a) that a DAHR procedure has been performed at the DAHR facility at the request of the intending parents;
 - (b) the information referred to in subsection (3) in respect of the donor and the intending parent;
 - (c) where known to the operator—
 - (i) whether the procedure has led to the pregnancy of the intending mother, and
 - (ii) where the procedure has resulted in the pregnancy of the intending mother, the date on which the intending mother is expected to give birth or, where applicable, the information specified in subsection (5).
- (5) Where the pregnancy of the intending mother referred to in subsection (4)(c)(i) has come to an end, the information to be provided under that subsection is the following:
 - (a) whether the pregnancy resulted in the birth of a live child;
 - (b) where the pregnancy resulted in the birth of a live child, the name, date and place of birth, sex and address of the child.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), the information referred to in subsection (4) shall be provided to the Minister, in relation to each DAHR procedure performed at the DAHR facility, on each of the following dates—
 - (a) on a date that is no later than 6 months after the performance of the procedure concerned, and
 - (b) on a date that is no earlier than 12 months and no later than 13 months after the performance of the procedure concerned.
- (7) Where the operator of a DAHR facility becomes aware of an error in information provided by it under subsection (4), he or she shall without delay inform the Minister of the error and provide the Minister with corrected information.

Minister may require information on compliance by DAHR facility with section 28

29. The Minister may require the operator of a DAHR facility to provide him or her with any information that he or she needs to determine whether the operator is in compliance with his or her obligations under section 28.

Authorised persons

30. (1) The Minister may appoint such and so many persons as he or she considers appropriate to be an authorised person or authorised persons for the purposes of ensuring compliance by the operator of a DAHR facility with his or her obligations under section 28.
- (2) A person appointed to be an authorised person under this section shall on his or her appointment be furnished by the Minister with a warrant of his or her appointment, and when exercising a power conferred by this Act shall, if requested by any person thereby affected, produce such warrant to that person for inspection.

Powers of authorised persons

31. (1) For the purposes of this Act, an authorised person may—
- (a) subject to subsection (3), enter and inspect at all reasonable times any premises—
 - (i) which he or she has reasonable grounds for believing are being used as a DAHR facility, or
 - (ii) at which he or she has reasonable grounds for believing records or documents relating to a DAHR facility are being kept,
 - (b) at such premises inspect and take copies of, any books, records or other documents (including books, records or documents stored in non-legible form), or extracts therefrom, that he or she finds in the course of his or her inspection,
 - (c) remove any such books, documents or records from such premises and detain them for such period as he or she reasonably considers to be necessary for the purposes of his or her functions under this Act,
 - (d) require—
 - (i) the operator of the DAHR facility, or
 - (ii) any person at the premises concerned, including the owner or person in charge of that place or premises,to give the authorised person such information and assistance as the authorised person may reasonably require for the purposes of his or her functions under this Act,
 - (e) require—
 - (i) the operator of the DAHR facility, or
 - (ii) any persons at the premises concerned, including the owner or person in charge of that place or premises, to produce to the authorised person such books, documents or other records (and in the case of documents or records stored in non-legible form, produce to him or her a legible reproduction thereof) that are in that person's possession or procurement, or under that person's control, as he or she may reasonably require for the purposes of his or her functions under this Act, and

(f) examine with regard to any matter under this Act any person whom the authorised person has reasonable grounds for believing to be—

(i) the operator of a DAHR facility, or

(ii) to be employed at a DAHR facility, and require the person to answer such questions as the authorised person may ask relative to those matters and to make a declaration of the truth of the answers to those questions.

(2) When performing a function under this Act, an authorised person may, subject to any warrant under subsection (4), be accompanied by such number of other authorised persons or members of the Garda Síochána as he or she considers appropriate.

(3) An authorised person shall not enter a dwelling, other than—

(a) with the consent of the occupier, or

(b) pursuant to a warrant under subsection (4).

(4) Upon the sworn information of an authorised person, a judge of the District Court may—

(a) for the purposes of enabling an authorised person to carry out an inspection of premises that the authorised person has reasonable grounds for believing are being used as a DAHR facility, or

(b) if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that information, books, documents or other records (including information, books, documents or records stored in non-legible form) required by an authorised person under this section is or are held in any place or premises, issue a warrant authorising a named authorised person accompanied by such other authorised persons or members of the Garda Síochána as may be necessary, at any time or times, before the expiration of one month from the date of issue of the warrant, to enter the dwelling and perform the functions of an authorised person under subsection (1).

(5) A person commits an offence if he or she—

(a) obstructs or interferes with an authorised person or a member of the Garda Síochána in the course of exercising a power conferred on him or her by this Act or a warrant under subsection (4) or impedes the exercise by the person or member, as the case may be, of such power, or

(b) fails or refuses to comply with a request or requirement of, or to answer a question asked by, the person or member pursuant to this section, or in purported compliance with such request or requirement or in answer to such question gives information to the person or member that he or she knows to be false or misleading in any material respect.

- (6) Where an authorised person believes, upon reasonable grounds, that a person has committed an offence under this Act, he or she may require that person to provide him or her with his or her name and the address at which he or she ordinarily resides.
- (7) A statement or admission made by a person pursuant to a requirement under subsection (1)(d) or (f) shall not be admissible as evidence in proceedings brought against the person for an offence (other than an offence under subsection (5)).
- (8) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction to a class A fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both, and
 - (b) on conviction on indictment to a fine not exceeding €70,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or both.

Enforcement of obligations of DAHR facility under section 28

- 32. (1) Where the Minister is satisfied that the operator of a DAHR facility is not in compliance with his or her obligations under section 28, the Minister may—
- (a) issue to the operator a direction requiring him or her to comply with such of the obligations as are specified in the direction, or
 - (b) apply to the Circuit Court for an order under subsection (3).
- (2) Where the Minister is satisfied that the operator of DAHR facility to which he or she has issued a direction under subsection (1)(a) is not in compliance with that direction, the Minister may apply to the Circuit Court for an order under subsection (3).
- (3) The Circuit Court, on an application under subsection (1)(b) or (2), as the case may be, where satisfied that the operator of the DAHR facility concerned is not in compliance with his or her obligations under section 28, may make an order directing the operator to comply with those obligations.
- (4) Where the Minister is satisfied that the operator of a DAHR facility who is the subject of an order under subsection (3) is not in compliance with the order, the Minister may apply to the Circuit Court for an order under subsection (5).
- (5) The Circuit Court, on an application under subsection (4), where satisfied that the operator of the DAHR facility is not in compliance with an order under subsection (3), may make an order prohibiting or restricting the performance at the DAHR facility of DAHR procedures until such time as the operator of the DAHR facility satisfies the Court of his or her ability to comply with his or her obligations under section 28.
- (6) The operator of a DAHR facility may, within 21 days from the date of the order, appeal an order of the Circuit Court under subsection (5) to the High Court on a point of law and the determination of the High Court on such an appeal in respect of the point of law shall be final and conclusive.

National Donor-Conceived Person Register

- 33. (1) The Minister shall cause to be established and maintained a register to be known as the National Donor-Conceived Person Register.
- (2) The Minister shall make an entry in the Register in respect of each child born in the State as the result of a DAHR procedure.
- (3) An entry under subsection (2) shall contain the following particulars:
- (a) the name, date and place of birth and sex of the child;
 - (b) the address of the child;
 - (c) the information in respect of the parent of the child, as provided to the Minister under section 28;
 - (d) the information in respect of the donor concerned, as provided to the Minister under section 28;
 - (e) the date on which the DAHR procedure that resulted in the birth of the child was performed;
 - (f) the name and address of the DAHR facility at which the DAHR procedure referred to in paragraph (e) was performed.
- (4) The Minister may prescribe the manner in which the information specified in subsection (3) is to be recorded on the Register.

Access to certain information from Register

- 34. (1) A donor-conceived child who has attained the age of 18 years, or the parent of a donor-conceived child who has not attained the age of 18 years, may request the Minister to provide him or her with the following information from the Register:
- (a) information other than the relevant donor's name, date of birth and contact details, that is recorded on the Register in respect of the relevant donor;
 - (b) the number of persons who have been born as a result of the use in a DAHR procedure of a gamete donated by the relevant donor, and the sex and year of birth of each of them.
- (2) A donor may request the Minister to provide him or her with information from the Register on the number of persons who have been born as a result of the use in a DAHR procedure of a gamete donated by the donor, and the sex and year of birth of each of them.
- (3) The Minister shall comply with a request made in accordance with subsection (1) or (2).

Information in respect of relevant donor to be provided to donor-conceived child

35. (1) A donor-conceived child who has attained the age of 18 years may request from the Minister the name, date of birth and contacts details of a relevant donor, as recorded in the Register.
- (2) Where the Minister receives a request under subsection (1), he or she shall send to the relevant donor a notice informing him or her that—
- (a) a request under subsection (1) has been made by the donor-conceived child, and
 - (b) the Minister shall, 12 weeks from the date on which the notice is sent, release to the donor-conceived child the information requested, unless the relevant donor makes representations to the Minister setting out why the safety of the relevant donor or the donor-conceived child, or both, requires that the information not be released.
- (3) Where a relevant donor to whom subsection (2) applies makes representations to the Minister in accordance with that subsection, the Minister shall consider those representations, having regard to the right of the donor-conceived child to his or her identity, and—
- (a) if satisfied that sufficient reasons exist to withhold the information concerned from the donor-conceived child, shall refuse the request under subsection (1) and notify the donor-conceived child of the refusal and, in doing so, may inform him or her of the content of the representations of the relevant donor under subsection (2), or
 - (b) if not so satisfied, shall release the information to the donor-conceived child concerned.
- (4) Where a relevant donor to whom subsection (2) applies does not make representations in accordance with that subsection, the Minister shall release the information to the donor-conceived child concerned.
- (5) A donor-conceived child may, within 21 days of receipt of the notification under subsection (3)(a), appeal to the Circuit Court against the Minister's refusal of his or her request under subsection (1).
- (6) An appeal under subsection (5) shall—
- (a) be on notice to the Minister, and
 - (b) be heard otherwise than in public.

Information in respect of donor-conceived child to be provided to relevant donor

36. (1) A donor-conceived child who has attained the age of 18 years may request the Minister to record on the Register a statement of his or her name, date of birth and contact details and confirming that he or she consents, on the making by the relevant donor of a request under subsection (2), to the release, in accordance with this section, to the relevant donor of that information.

- (2) A donor may request from the Minister the name, date of birth and contact details of a donor-conceived child who has attained the age of 18 years and in relation to whom he or she is a relevant donor.
- (3) Where the Minister receives a request under subsection (2), and a statement under subsection (1) by the donor-conceived child is recorded on the Register, the Minister shall send the donor-conceived child a notice informing him or her that—
 - (a) a request under subsection (2) has been made by the relevant donor, and
 - (b) unless he or she informs the Minister, within 12 weeks from the date on which the notice is sent, that he or she objects to the release to the relevant donor of the information contained in the statement under subsection (1), the Minister shall release that information to the relevant donor.
- (4) Where a donor-conceived child to whom a notice under subsection (3) has been sent does not, in accordance with that subsection, object to the release of the information concerned, the Minister shall release that information to the relevant donor concerned.

Information in respect of other persons to be provided to donor-conceived child

37. (1) A donor-conceived child who has attained the age of 18 years may request the Minister to record on the Register a statement of his or her name, date of birth and contact details and confirming that he or she consents, on the making by a person of a request under subsection (2), to the release, in accordance with this section, to that person of that information.
- (2) A donor-conceived child who has attained the age of 18 years (in this section referred to as a “requesting person”) may request from the Minister the name, date of birth and contact details of a relevant person.
 - (3) Where the Minister receives a request under subsection (2), and the donor-conceived child to whom the requested information relates has made a statement under subsection (1) that is recorded on the Register, the Minister shall send the donor-conceived child a notice informing him or her that—
 - (a) a request under subsection (2) has been made by the requesting person, and
 - (b) unless the donor-conceived child informs the Minister, within 12 weeks of the date of the sending of the notice, that he or she objects to the release to the requesting person of the information contained in the statement under subsection (1), the Minister shall release that information to the requesting person.
 - (4) Where a donor-conceived child to whom a notice under subsection (3) has been sent does not, in accordance with that subsection, object to the release of the information concerned, the Minister shall release that information to the requesting person.
 - (5) In this section, “relevant person” means, in relation to a requesting person, a donor-conceived child in relation to whom a relevant donor is also a relevant donor in relation to the requesting person.

Additional provision in relation to sections 33 to 37

38. (1) Where information relating to a person is, in accordance with sections 33 to 37, recorded on the Register, that person (or, in the case of a person who has not attained the age of 18 years, his or her parent or guardian) may request the Minister to update the information concerned.

(2) The Minister shall not—

(a) record on the Register a statement made by a person under section 36(1) or 37(1), or

(b) release information to a person in response to a request under section 35, 36, or 37, unless the Minister is satisfied that the person has received counselling on the implications of his or her recording such a statement or, as the case may be, receiving such information.

Interaction of Register and register of births

39. (1) Where the Minister makes an entry under section 33(2), he or she shall notify an tArd-Chláráitheoir that the Minister holds a record in the Register in respect of the child concerned.

(2) Where an tArd-Chláráitheoir receives a notification under subsection (1), he or she shall note in the entry in the register of births in respect of the child that the child is a donor-conceived child and that additional information is available from the Register in relation to the child.

(3) A note referred to in subsection (2) shall be released only to the child concerned, when he or she has attained the age of 18 years.

(4) Where a person who has attained the age of 18 years applies for a copy of his or her birth certificate, and the register of births contains a note referred to in subsection (2), an tArd-Chláráitheoir shall, when issuing a copy of the birth certificate requested, inform the person that further information relating to him or her is available from the Register.

Jurisdiction (Parts 2 and 3)

40. (1) The jurisdiction conferred on the District Court by section 21 shall be exercised by—

(a) a judge of the District Court who is assigned to the district court district in which an applicant under that section ordinarily resides or carries on any profession, business or occupation, or

(b) where no applicant under that section ordinarily resides or carries on any profession, business or occupation in the State, a judge who is assigned to the Dublin Metropolitan District.

(2) The jurisdiction conferred on the Circuit Court by sections 22 and 35 shall be exercised by—

- (a) the judge of the circuit in which an applicant under the section concerned ordinarily resides or carries on any profession, business or occupation, or
 - (b) where no applicant under the section concerned ordinarily resides or carries on any profession, business or occupation in the State, by a judge of the court for the time being assigned to the Dublin Circuit.
- (3) The jurisdiction conferred on the Circuit Court by section 32 shall be exercised by the judge of the circuit in which the DAHR facility concerned is located.

Regulations (Parts 2 and 3)

41. (1) The Minister may make regulations prescribing any matter or thing which is referred to in Part 2 or this Part as prescribed or to be prescribed.
- (2) Regulations under Part 2 or this Part may contain such incidental, supplementary and consequential provisions as the Minister considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of the regulations.
- (3) Regulations made under Part 2 or this Part shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after they are made and, if a resolution annulling those regulations is passed by either such House within the next 21 days on which that House has sat after the regulations are laid before it, the regulations shall be annulled accordingly but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

Service of documents (Parts 2 and 3)

42. (1) A notice or other document that is required to be served on or given to a person under Part 2 or this Part shall be addressed to the person concerned by name, and may be so served on or given to the person in one of the following ways:
- (a) by delivering it to the person;
 - (b) by leaving it at the address at which the person ordinarily resides or, in a case in which an address for service has been furnished, at that address; or
 - (c) by sending it by post in a prepaid registered letter to the address at which the person ordinarily resides or, in a case in which an address for service has been furnished, to that address.
- (2) For the purpose of this section, a company within the meaning of the Companies Acts shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its registered office, and every other body corporate and every unincorporated body of persons shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its principal office or place of business.

PART 4

AMENDMENTS TO GUARDIANSHIP OF INFANTS ACT 1964

Amendment of section 2 of Act of 1964

43. Section 2 of the Act of 1964 is amended—

(a) in subsection (1) by—

(i) the substitution of the following definition for the definition of “adoption order”:

“ ‘adoption order’ has the same meaning as it has in the Adoption Act 2010;”,

(ii) the substitution of the following definition for the definition of “father”:

“ ‘father’ includes a male adopter under an adoption order but subject to section 11(4), does not include the father of a child who has not married that child’s mother unless—

(a) an order under section 6A is in force in respect of that child,

(b) the circumstances set out in subsection (3) of this section apply,

(c) the circumstances set out in subsection (4) of this section apply,

(d) the circumstances set out in subsection (4A) of this section apply, or

(e) the father is a guardian of the child by virtue of section 6D;”,

(iii) the substitution of the following definition for the definition of “parent”:

“ ‘parent’ means—

(a) subject to paragraph (b), a father or mother as defined by this subsection, and

(b) in relation to a donor-conceived child, the parent or parents of that child under section 5 of the Act of 2015;”,

and

(iv) the insertion of the following definitions:

“ ‘Act of 2010’ means the Civil Partnership and Certain Rights and Obligations of Cohabitants Act 2010;

‘Act of 2015’ means the Children and Family Relationships Act 2015;

‘civil partner’ shall be construed in accordance with section 3 of the Act of 2010;

47. Section 6 of the Act of 1964 is amended—

- (a) by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (1):

“(1A) Where civil partners or a cohabiting couple have jointly adopted a child under an adoption order the civil partners or cohabiting couple, as the case may be, shall be guardians of the child jointly.”,
- (b) by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (3):

“(3A) (a) On the death of a civil partner who has jointly adopted a child with their civil partner, the other civil partner, if surviving, shall be guardian of the child, either alone or jointly with any guardian appointed by the deceased civil partner or by the court.

(b) On the death of one cohabitant of a cohabiting couple who have jointly adopted a child, the other cohabitant, if surviving, shall be guardian of the child, either alone or jointly with any guardian appointed by the deceased cohabitant or by the court.”,

(c) by the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (4):

“(4) Subject to subsection (1A), where the mother of a child has not married the child’s father, and no other person is, under this Act, the guardian of the child, she, while living, shall alone be the guardian of the child.”,

and

(d) by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (4):

“(5) In this section, ‘cohabiting couple’ has the same meaning as it has in the Adoption Act 2010.”.

Amendment of section 6A of Act of 1964

48. The Act of 1964 is amended by the substitution of the following section for section 6A:

“Power of court to appoint parent as guardian

6A. (1) The court may, on an application to it by a person who, being a parent of the child, is not a guardian of the child, make an order appointing the person as guardian of the child.

(2) Without prejudice to other provisions of this Act, the appointment under this section of a guardian shall not, unless the court otherwise orders, affect the prior appointment (whether under this or any other enactment) of any other person as guardian of the child.”.

Insertion in Act of 1964 of sections 6B to 6E

49. The Act of 1964 is amended by the insertion of the following sections after section 6A:

“Rights of certain parents to guardianship

6B. (1) A man who—

(a) is, under section 5(1)(b) of the Act of 2015, the parent of the child,
and

(b) has married the mother of the child, shall be a guardian of the child.

- (2) A person, other than a person to whom subsection (1) applies, who, along with the mother of the child is, under section 5 of the Act of 2015, the parent of a child shall be a guardian of the child where—
- (a) the person has entered into a civil partnership with the mother,
 - (b) the circumstances in subsection (3) apply, or
 - (c) the circumstances in subsection (4) apply.
- (3) The circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(b) are that the person and the mother of the child concerned have been cohabitants for not less than 12 consecutive months occurring after the date on which this subsection comes into operation, which shall include a period, occurring at any time after the birth of the child, of not less than three consecutive months during which both the mother and the person have lived with the child.
- (4) The circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(c) are that the person and the mother of the child concerned—
- (a) declare that they are the parents, under section 5 of the Act of 2015, of the child concerned,
 - (b) declare that they agree to the appointment of the person as a guardian of the child, and
 - (c) have made a statutory declaration to that effect in a form prescribed by the Minister.

Power of court to appoint person other than parent as guardian

- 6C. (1) The court may, on an application to it by a person who, not being a parent of the child, is eligible under subsection (2) to make such application, make an order appointing the person as guardian of a child.
- (2) A person is eligible to make an application referred to in subsection (1) where he or she is over the age of 18 years and—
- (a) on the date of the application, he or she—
 - (i) is married to or is in a civil partnership with, or has been for over 3 years a cohabitant of, a parent of the child, and
 - (ii) has shared with that parent responsibility for the child’s day-to-day care for a period of more than 2 years,
 - or
 - (b) on the date of the application—
 - (i) he or she has provided for the child’s day-to-day care for a continuous period of more than 12 months, and

- (ii) the child has no parent or guardian who is willing or able to exercise the rights and responsibilities of guardianship in respect of the child.
- (3) An application under subsection (1) shall be on notice to each person who is a parent or guardian of the child concerned.
- (4) Where a person to whom subsection (2)(b) applies makes an application under subsection (1), the court shall direct that the Child and Family Agency be put on notice of the application, and have regard to the views (if any) of the Agency in deciding whether or not to make an order under subsection (1).
- (5) Without prejudice to other provisions of this Act, the appointment under this section of a guardian shall not, unless the court otherwise orders, affect the prior appointment (whether under this or any other enactment) of any other person as guardian of the child.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), an order under subsection (1) shall not be made under this section without the consent of—
 - (a) each guardian of the child, and
 - (b) the applicant concerned.
- (7) The court may make an order dispensing, for the purposes of this section, with the consent of a guardian of the child, if it is satisfied that the consent is unreasonably withheld and that it is in the best interests of the child to make such an order.
- (8) In deciding whether or not to make an order under this section, the court shall—
 - (a) ensure that the child concerned, to the extent possible given his or her age and understanding, has the opportunity to make his or her views on the matter known, and have regard to those views, and
 - (b) have regard to the number of persons who are guardians of the child concerned, and the degree to which those persons are involved in the upbringing of the child.
- (9) Where the court appoints under this section a person as guardian of a child, and one or both of the parents of that child are still living, the person so appointed shall enjoy the rights and responsibilities of a guardian specified in subsection (11) only—
 - (a) where the court expressly so orders, and
 - (b) to the extent specified in the order and in the case of the rights and responsibilities specified in any of paragraphs (a) to (e) of that subsection, subject to such limitations as are specified in the order.
- (10) In deciding whether to exercise its power under subsection (9), the court shall have regard to—

- (a) the relationship between the child concerned and the person appointed as guardian of the child, and
 - (b) the best interests of the child.
- (11) The rights and responsibilities referred to in subsection (9) are the rights and responsibilities of a guardian:
- (a) to decide on the child's place of residence;
 - (b) to make decisions regarding the child's religious, spiritual, cultural and linguistic upbringing;
 - (c) to decide with whom the child is to live;
 - (d) to consent to medical, dental and other health related treatment for the child, in respect of which a guardian's consent is required;
 - (e) under an enactment specified in subsection (12);
 - (f) to place the child for adoption, and consent to the adoption of the child, under the Adoption Act 2010.
- (12) The enactments referred to in subsection (11)(e) are:
- (a) section 2A(2) of the Firearms Act 1925;
 - (b) section 5 of the Protection of Young Persons (Employment) Act 1996;
 - (c) sections 50 and 50A of the International Criminal Court Act 2006;
 - (d) sections 79, 79A and 79B of the Criminal Justice (Mutual Assistance) Act 2008;
 - (e) section 14 of the Passports Act 2008;
 - (f) the Criminal Justice (Forensic Evidence and DNA Database System) Act 2014.

Rights and responsibilities equivalent to guardianship arising in another state

- 6D. (1) Subject to this section, a person shall be the guardian of a child where he or she has—
- (a) pursuant to a judgment that is entitled to recognition in accordance with the provisions of the Council Regulation or the Convention,
 - (b) pursuant to a measure that is entitled to recognition in accordance with the provisions of the Convention, or
 - (c) by operation of the law of a state other than the State as provided for in Chapter III of the Convention,
- acquired, in respect of the child, rights and responsibilities that are equivalent to guardianship.

(2) The court may, in accordance with this Act and, where applicable, the Council Regulation and the Convention, remove, vary or enforce the rights and responsibilities of a guardian to whom subsection (1) applies.

(3) In this section—

‘Convention’ means the Convention on jurisdiction, applicable law, recognition, enforcement and co-operation in respect of parental responsibility and measures for the protection of children, signed at the Hague on the 19th day of October, 1996;

‘Council Regulation’ means Council Regulation (EC) No. 2201/2003 of 27 November 2003¹ concerning jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in matrimonial matters and the matters of parental responsibility, repealing Regulation (EC) No. 1347/2000;

‘judgment’ means a judgment as defined in Chapter I of Article 2 of the Council Regulation;

‘measure’ means a judgment or decision which is made in accordance with Chapter II of the Convention;

‘person’ includes a person, institution or other body.

Power of court to appoint temporary guardian

6E. (1) A qualifying guardian may nominate a person to be, in the event that the qualifying guardian becomes incapable through serious illness or injury of exercising the rights and responsibilities of guardianship, temporary guardian of the child concerned.

(2) The nomination under subsection (1) of a person to be a temporary guardian shall—

(a) be in writing, in such form as may be prescribed, and

(b) specify such limitations (if any) as the qualifying guardian wishes to impose on the rights and responsibilities of guardianship that the temporary guardian, if appointed under this section, may exercise.

(3) Where a qualifying guardian who has nominated a person under subsection (1), or a person so-nominated (in this section referred to as the ‘nominated person’), is of opinion that the qualifying guardian is incapable through serious illness or injury of exercising the rights and responsibilities of guardianship, that guardian or nominated person may apply to the court for an order under this section.

(4) An application under subsection (3) shall be on notice to—

(a) each guardian of the child, including, where the application is made by the nominated person, the qualifying guardian concerned,

- (b) where the application is made by the qualifying guardian concerned, the nominated person,
 - (c) a parent (if any) of the child who is not the child's guardian, and
 - (d) the Child and Family Agency.
- (5) The court, on hearing an application under subsection (3), and having regard to the views (if any) of the persons referred to in subsection (4), may make an order appointing the nominated person to be a temporary guardian of the child concerned where, and only where, it is satisfied that—
- (a) the qualifying guardian concerned is incapable through serious illness or injury of exercising the rights and responsibilities of guardianship,
 - (b) the nominated person is a fit and proper person to exercise the rights and responsibilities specified in subsection (8), and
 - (c) it is in the best interests of the child concerned for the nominated person to become the temporary guardian of the child.
- (6) An order under subsection (5) may impose—
- (a) such limitations on the exercise by the temporary guardian of the rights and responsibilities of guardianship, and
 - (b) such conditions relating to the periodic review by the court of the appointment of the person as temporary guardian,
- as the court considers necessary in the best interests of the child concerned.
- (7) In imposing limitations or conditions under subsection (6), the court shall have regard to the limitations specified by the qualifying guardian under subsection (2).
- (8) Subject to the terms of the order concerned under subsection (5), a person appointed to be temporary guardian—
- (a) may exercise the rights and responsibilities of guardianship in respect of the child concerned,
 - (b) shall take custody of the child concerned, and
 - (c) shall act jointly with any other guardian of the child concerned, including the qualifying guardian concerned.
- (9) A temporary guardian shall, and the qualifying guardian concerned may, where he or she is of opinion that the qualifying guardian is no longer incapable of exercising the rights and responsibilities of guardianship, apply to the court for an order under subsection (11).
- (10) An application under subsection (9) shall be on notice to—

- (a) each guardian of the child concerned, including, where the application is made by a temporary guardian, the qualifying guardian concerned,
 - (b) any parent of the child who is not the child's guardian, and
 - (c) the Child and Family Agency.
- (11) The court, on hearing an application under subsection (9), may make an order—
- (a) confirming that the appointment of the temporary guardian shall continue in force,
 - (b) to the effect that the qualifying guardian is capable of exercising the rights and responsibilities of guardianship and revoking the appointment of the temporary guardian, or
 - (c) to the effect that the qualifying guardian shall have specified rights and responsibilities of guardianship and that the other rights and responsibilities of guardianship shall be exercised by the qualifying guardian and temporary guardian jointly.
- (12) An order under subsection (11) may—
- (a) specify the period for which it shall remain in effect,
 - (b) impose such conditions relating to the periodic review by the court of the order as the court considers necessary in the best interests of the child concerned, and
 - (c) provide for such additional matters as the court considers necessary in the best interests of the child concerned.
- (13) In considering an application under subsection (3) or (9), the court shall ensure that the child concerned, to the extent possible given his or her age and understanding, has the opportunity to make his or her views on the matter known, and the court shall take account of those views.

Declaration that person is guardian

- 6F. (1) A person specified in subsection (2) may apply to the court for a declaration under this section that a person named in the application is or is not a guardian by virtue of the circumstances set out in section 2(4A) or 6B(3) of a child named in the application (in this section referred to as the 'child concerned').
- (2) An application for a declaration under this section may be made, in relation to a child concerned, by—
- (a) a guardian of the child concerned, or

- (b) a person seeking a declaration that he or she is or is not a guardian by virtue of the circumstances set out in section 2(4A) or 6B(3) of the child concerned.
- (3) An application for a declaration under this section shall not be made in relation to a child concerned other than—
 - (a) where the application is made by a person referred to in subsection (2)(a), on notice to each other guardian of the child and the person named in the application in relation to whom the declaration is sought, and
 - (b) where the application is made by a person referred to in subsection (2)(b), on notice to each guardian of the child.
- (4) The court may direct that notice of any application for a declaration under this section shall be given to such other persons as the court thinks fit and where notice is so given or where notice is given under subsection (3) to any person the court may, either of its own motion or on the application of that person or any party to the proceedings, order that that person shall be added as a party to those proceedings.
- (5) Where on an application for a declaration under this section it is proved on the balance of probabilities that a person named in the application is or is not a guardian by virtue of the circumstances set out in section 2(4A) or 6B(3) of the child concerned, the court shall make the declaration accordingly.”.

Power of parents to appoint testamentary guardians

50. The Act of 1964 is amended by the substitution of the following section for section 7:

“Power of parents to appoint testamentary guardians

- 7. (1) On the death of the guardian (‘deceased guardian’) of a child, a guardian (‘surviving guardian’) surviving the deceased guardian, if any, shall be guardian of the child jointly, where applicable, with—
- (a) any other surviving guardian, and
 - (b) any person or persons appointed testamentary guardian by the deceased guardian in accordance with this section.
- (2) A guardian who is—
- (a) the parent of a child, or
 - (b) not being the parent of the child, has custody of him or her to the exclusion of any living parent of the child,
- may by deed or will appoint a person or persons to be guardian (‘testamentary guardian’) of the child after his or her death.

- (3) On the death of a guardian referred to in subsection (2), the testamentary guardian appointed by the deceased guardian shall, subject to subsections (4) and (5), act jointly with a surviving guardian of the child so long as that surviving guardian remains alive.
- (4) Where subsection (3) applies and—
 - (a) a surviving guardian referred to in that subsection objects to a testamentary guardian acting jointly with him or her, or
 - (b) the testamentary guardian considers that a surviving guardian is unfit to have the custody of the child,the surviving guardian or the testamentary guardian, as the case may be, may apply to the court for an order under this section.
- (5) On an application under subsection (4), the court may make an order providing that—
 - (a) the appointment of the testamentary guardian is revoked and the surviving guardian shall remain guardian of the child concerned,
 - (b) the testamentary guardian shall act jointly with the surviving guardian, or
 - (c) the testamentary guardian shall act as guardian of the child to the exclusion, insofar as the court thinks proper, of the surviving guardian.
- (6) Where the court makes an order under subsection (5)(c), it may make all or any of the following orders:
 - (a) such order regarding the custody of the child and the right of access to the child of the surviving guardian as it thinks proper;
 - (b) an order that a parent of the child shall pay to the guardian or guardians, or any of them, towards the maintenance of the child such weekly or other periodical sum as, having regard to the means of the surviving parent, it considers reasonable.
- (7) An appointment of a testamentary guardian by deed may be revoked by a subsequent deed or by will.”.

Amendment of section 8 of Act of 1964

51. Section 8 of the Act of 1964 is amended by—

- (a) the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (4):

“(4) A guardian—

- (a) appointed by will or deed,
- (b) appointed by order of the court,

- (c) holding office by virtue of the circumstances set out in subsection (4) or (4A) of section 2, or subsection (3) or (4) of section 6B, or
- (d) holding office by virtue of section 6D, and subject to subsection (2) of that section, may be removed from office only by the court.”,

and

- (b) the insertion of the following subsections after subsection (5):

“(6) The court may, on application by a guardian or a proposed guardian make an order removing from office a guardian (including a guardian who is the applicant)—

- (a) appointed pursuant to section 6A, 6C, 7 or subsection (1) or (2), or
- (b) who holds office by virtue of the circumstances set out in subsection (4) or (4A) of section 2, or subsection (3) or (4) of section 6B, or
- (c) who holds office by virtue of section 6D.

(7) The court shall remove a guardian from office under subsection (6) only where—

- (a) there is another guardian in place or about to be appointed,
- (b) the court is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child that the guardian be removed from office,
- (c) for substantial reasons that appear to it to be sufficient, the court considers it necessary or desirable to do so, and
- (d) the guardian who is to be removed from office—
 - (i) consents to the removal,
 - (ii) is unable or unwilling to exercise the powers, responsibilities and entitlements of guardianship in respect of the child, or
 - (iii) has failed in his or her duty towards the child to such extent that the safety or welfare of the child is likely to be prejudicially affected if he or she is not removed from office.”.

Insertion of section 8A in Act of 1964

52. The Act of 1964 is amended by the insertion of the following section after section 8:

“Duration of guardianship

8A. Subject to section 8, a person continues to be a guardian of a child until whichever of the following occurs first—

- (a) the guardian dies,

- (b) the child attains the age of 18 years, or
- (c) the child marries.”.

Amendment of section 11 of Act of 1964

53. Section 11 of the Act of 1964 is amended by—

- (a) the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (2):

“(2) The court may by an order under this section—

- (a) give such directions as it thinks proper regarding the custody of the child and the right of access to the child of each of his or her parents, and
- (b) order a parent of the child to pay towards the maintenance of the child such weekly or other periodical sum as, having regard to the means of the parent, the court considers reasonable.”,

- (b) the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (4):

“(4) In the case of a child whose parents have not married each other—

- (a) a reference in subsection (2)(b) to a parent of that child shall be construed as including a parent who is not a guardian of the child, and
- (b) the right to make an application under this section regarding the custody of the child and the right of access thereto of each of his or her parents shall extend to a parent who is not a guardian of the child, and for this purpose references in this section to the parent of a child shall be construed as including such a parent.”,

and

- (c) the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (9):

“(10) An application under subsection (1) shall be on notice to each other person who is a parent or guardian of the child concerned.”.

Amendment of section 11A of Act of 1964

54. Section 11A of the Act of 1964 is amended by the substitution of “parents” for “father and mother”.

Amendment of section 11B of Act of 1964

55. Section 11B of the Act of 1964 is amended—

- (a) in subsection (1), by the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph (b):

“(b) is a person with whom the child resides or has formerly resided,”,

- (b) by the deletion of subsection (2), and
- (c) in subsection (3)—
 - (i) in paragraph (c), by the substitution of “guardians,” for “guardians.”, and
 - (ii) by the insertion of the following paragraphs after paragraph (c):
 - “(d) the views of the child, and
 - (e) whether it is necessary to make an order to facilitate the access of the person to the child.”.

Amendment of section 11D of Act of 1964

- 56. Section 11D of the Act of 1964 is amended by the substitution of “each of his or her parents” for “both his or her father and mother”.

Relatives and certain persons may apply for custody of child

- 57. The Act of 1964 is amended by the insertion of the following section after section 11D:

“Relatives and certain persons may apply for custody of child

11E. (1) The court may, on application by—

- (a) a person who is a relative of a child, or
 - (b) a person to whom subsection (2) applies, make an order giving that person custody of the child.
- (2) This subsection applies to a person with whom the child concerned resides where the person—
- (a) (i) is or was married to or in a civil partnership with, or has been, for a period of over 3 years, the cohabitant of the parent of the child, and
 - (ii) has, for a period of more than 2 years, shared with that parent responsibility for the child’s day-to-day care,
- or
- (b) (i) is an adult who has, for a continuous period of more than 12 months, provided for the child’s day-to-day care, and
 - (ii) the child has no parent or guardian who is willing or able to exercise the rights and responsibilities of guardianship in respect of the child.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the court shall not make an order under subsection (1) without the consent of each guardian of the child.
- (4) The court may make an order dispensing with the consent of a guardian if satisfied it is in the best interests of the child to do so.

- (5) The court, in making an order in respect of a person to whom subsection (2) applies, may grant custody of a child to the child's parent and such person jointly and, in doing so, shall—
- (a) where these are not agreed as between the person and the parent of the child, specify the residential arrangements that are to apply in respect of the child, and
- (b) where the residential arrangements that are to apply in respect of the child provide that, for any period, the child will not reside with one of his or her parents, specify the contact (if any) that is to take place between the child and that parent during that period.”.

Additional powers of court in relation to applications under this Act

58. The Act of 1964 is amended by the insertion of the following section after section 12:

“Additional powers of court in relation to applications under this Act

- 12A. (1) In making any order under this Act, the court may impose such conditions as it considers to be necessary in the best interests of the child.
- (2) The court may, where it considers it necessary and appropriate in order to protect the best interests of the child, including his or her right to the care and custody of both of his or her parents, impose conditions in relation to the holding of the passport of a child.
- (3) The conditions referred to in subsection (2) include that a passport may be retained by the court or held by a specified person and may be released subject to such further conditions as may be determined by the court.
- (4) Where, in any proceedings pursuant to this Part, it appears to the court that it may be appropriate for a care order or a supervision order to be made with respect to a child concerned in the proceedings, the court may, of its own motion, or on the application of any person, adjourn the proceedings and make such directions under section 20 of the Child Care Act 1991 as the court may deem appropriate.”.

Amendment of section 18(2) of Act of 1964

59. Section 18(2) of the Act of 1964 is amended by the substitution of “parents” for “father and mother”.

Insertion in Act of 1964 of sections 18A to 18D

60. The Act of 1964 is amended by the insertion of the following sections after section 18:

“Enforcement orders

18A. (1) A guardian or parent of a child who has been—

- (a) granted, by order of the court made under this Act, custody of, or access to, that child, and
 - (b) unreasonably denied such custody or access by another guardian or parent of that child,
- may apply to the court for an order ('enforcement order') under this section.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall be on notice to each guardian and parent of the child concerned.
 - (3) Subject to subsection (4), the court, on an application under subsection (1), shall make an enforcement order only where it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the applicant was unreasonably denied custody or access, as the case may be, by the other parent or guardian,
 - (b) it is in the best interests of the child to do so, and
 - (c) it is otherwise appropriate in the circumstances of the case to do so.
 - (4) An enforcement order may provide for one or more than one of the following:
 - (a) that the applicant be granted access to the child for such periods of time (being periods of time in addition to the periods of time during which the applicant has access to the child under the order referred to in subsection (1)(a)) that the court may consider necessary in order to allow any adverse effects on the relationship between the applicant and child caused by the denial referred to in subsection (1) to be addressed;
 - (b) that the respondent reimburse the applicant for any necessary expenses actually incurred by the applicant in attempting to exercise his or her right under the order referred to in subsection (1)(a) to custody of, or access to, the child;
 - (c) that the respondent or the applicant, or both, in order to ensure future compliance by them with the order referred to in subsection (1)(a) do one or more than one of the following:
 - (i) attend, either individually or together, a parenting programme;
 - (ii) avail, either individually or together, of family counselling;
 - (iii) receive information, in such manner and in such form as the court may determine on the possibility of their availing of mediation as a means of resolving disputes between them, that adversely affect their parenting capacities, between the applicant and respondent.
 - (5) An enforcement order shall not contain a provision referred to in subsection (4)(a) unless—

- (a) the child, to the extent possible given his or her age and understanding, has had the opportunity to make his or her views on the matter known to the court, and
 - (b) the court has taken the views (if any) of the child referred to in paragraph (a) into account in making the order.
- (6) Where the court, on an application under subsection (1), is of the opinion that the denial of custody or access was reasonable in the particular circumstances, it may—
- (a) refuse to make an enforcement order, or
 - (b) make such enforcement order that it considers appropriate in the circumstances.
- (7) This section is without prejudice to the law as to contempt of court.
- (8) In this section—

‘family counselling’ means a service provided by a family counsellor in which he or she assists a person or persons—

- (a) to resolve or better cope with personal and interpersonal problems or difficulties relating to, as the case may be, his, her or their marriage, civil partnership, cohabitation or parenting of a child, or
- (b) to resolve or better cope with personal and interpersonal problems or difficulties, or issues relating to the care of children, where the person or persons is or are affected, or likely to be affected, by separation, divorce, the dissolution of a civil partnership or the ending of a relationship of cohabitation;

‘family counsellor’ means a person who has the requisite skill and judgment to provide family counselling;

‘parenting programme’ means a programme that is designed to assist (including by the provision of counselling services or the teaching of techniques to resolve disputes) a person in resolving problems that adversely affect the carrying out of his or her parenting responsibilities.

Person presumed to have seen order of court

18B. A person shall be deemed to have been given or shown a copy of an order made under this Act if that person was present at the sitting of the court at which such order was made.

Power of court to vary or terminate custody or access enforcement order

18C. (1) The court may, on application by a person granted by order of the court made under this Act, custody of, or access to a child, make an order varying or terminating an enforcement order or any part of that order.

- (2) The court may, in proceedings to vary or terminate a custody or access order, in those proceedings vary or terminate an enforcement order that relates to that custody or access order.

Enforcement of custody or access order

18D. (1) Where a guardian or parent of a child—

- (a) has been granted, by order of the court made under this Act, custody of, or access to that child, and
- (b) fails, without reasonable notice to another guardian or parent of the child, to exercise the right concerned, the other parent or guardian of the child may apply to the court for an order requiring the first-mentioned guardian or parent to reimburse to the second-mentioned guardian or parent any necessary expenses actually incurred by that guardian or parent as a result of the failure of the first-mentioned guardian or parent to exercise that right.

- (2) In this section, and section 18A, ‘necessary expenses’ include the following:
- (a) travel expenses;
 - (b) lost remuneration;
 - (c) any other expenses the court may allow.”.

Amendment of section 23 of Act of 1964

61. Section 23 of the Act of 1964 is amended by—

- (a) designating the section as subsection (1), and
- (b) by inserting the following subsections after subsection (1):

“(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—

- (a) an admission by a party that indicates a child has been abused or is at risk of abuse, or
- (b) a disclosure by a child that indicates the child has been abused or is at risk of abuse.

(3) In this section, ‘abuse’ means physical, sexual or emotional abuse.”.

Amendment of section 27 of Act of 1964

62. Section 27 of the Act of 1964 is amended in subsection (1) by the substitution of “section 6A, 6C, 6E, 11, 11B or 11E” for “section 6A, 11 or 11B”.

Insertion of Part V in Act of 1964

63. The Act of 1964 is amended by the insertion of the following after Part IV:

“Part V

BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD

Determination by court of best interests of child

- 31. (1) In determining for the purposes of this Act what is in the best interests of a child, the court shall have regard to all of the factors or circumstances that it regards as relevant to the child concerned and his or her family.
- (2) The factors and circumstances referred to in subsection (1) include:
- (a) the benefit to the child of having a meaningful relationship with each of his or her parents and with the other relatives and persons who are involved in the child’s upbringing and, except where such contact is not in the child’s best interests, of having sufficient contact with them to maintain such relationships;
 - (b) the views of the child concerned that are ascertainable (whether in accordance with section 32 or otherwise);
 - (c) the physical, psychological and emotional needs of the child concerned, taking into consideration the child’s age and stage of development and the likely effect on him or her of any change of circumstances;
 - (d) the history of the child’s upbringing and care, including the nature of the relationship between the child and each of his or her parents and the other relatives and persons referred to in paragraph (a), and the desirability of preserving and strengthening such relationships;
 - (e) the child’s religious, spiritual, cultural and linguistic upbringing and needs;
 - (f) the child’s social, intellectual and educational upbringing and needs;
 - (g) the child’s age and any special characteristics;
 - (h) any harm which the child has suffered or is at risk of suffering, including harm as a result of household violence, and the protection of the child’s safety and psychological well-being;
 - (i) where applicable, proposals made for the child’s custody, care, development and upbringing and for access to and contact with the child, having regard to the desirability of the parents or guardians of the child agreeing to such proposals and co-operating with each other in relation to them;
 - (j) the willingness and ability of each of the child’s parents to facilitate and encourage a close and continuing relationship between the child and the other parent, and to maintain and foster relationships between the child and his or her relatives;

- (k) the capacity of each person in respect of whom an application is made under this Act—
 - (i) to care for and meet the needs of the child,
 - (ii) to communicate and co-operate on issues relating to the child, and
 - (iii) to exercise the relevant powers, responsibilities and entitlements to which the application relates.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(h), the court shall have regard to household violence that has occurred or is likely to occur in the household of the child, or a household in which the child has been or is likely to be present, including the impact or likely impact of such violence on:
 - (a) the safety of the child and other members of the household concerned;
 - (b) the child's personal well-being, including the child's psychological and emotional well-being;
 - (c) the victim of such violence;
 - (d) the capacity of the perpetrator of the violence to properly care for the child and the risk, or likely risk, that the perpetrator poses to the child.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a parent's conduct may be considered to the extent that it is relevant to the child's welfare and best interests only.
- (5) In any proceedings to which section 3(1)(a) applies, the court shall have regard to the general principle that unreasonable delay in determining the proceedings may be contrary to the best interests of the child.
- (6) In obtaining the ascertainable views of a child for the purposes of subsection (2)(b), the court—
 - (a) shall facilitate the free expression by the child of those views and, in particular, shall endeavour to ensure that any views so expressed by the child are not expressed as a result of undue influence, and
 - (b) may make an order under section 32.
- (7) In this section 'household violence' includes behaviour by a parent or guardian or a household member causing or attempting to cause physical harm to the child or another child, parent or household member, and includes sexual abuse or causing a child or a parent or other household member to fear for his or her safety or that of another household member.

Power of court to make certain orders

- 32. (1) In proceedings to which section 3(1)(a) applies, the court may, by order, do either or both of the following:
- (a) give such directions as it thinks proper for the purpose of procuring from an expert a report in writing on any question affecting the welfare of the child; or
 - (b) appoint an expert to determine and convey the child's views.
- (2) An order under subsection (1) may be made by the court of its own motion or on application to it in that behalf by a party to the proceedings and, in deciding whether to make an order, the court shall have regard to any views expressed to it in relation to the matter by or on behalf of a party to the proceedings concerned or any other person to whom they relate.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the court, in deciding whether to make an order under that subsection, shall, in particular, have regard to the following:
- (a) the age and maturity of the child;
 - (b) the nature of the issues in dispute in the proceedings;
 - (c) any previous report under subsection (1)(a) on a question affecting the welfare of the child;
 - (d) the best interests of the child;
 - (e) whether the making of the order will assist the expression by the child of his or her views in the proceedings;
 - (f) the views expressed by a person referred to in subsection (2).
- (4) A copy of a report under subsection (1)(a) may be provided in evidence in the proceedings and shall be given to—
- (a) the parties to the proceedings concerned, and
 - (b) subject to subsection (5), if he or she is not a party to the proceedings, to the child concerned.
- (5) In determining whether a report obtained under subsection (1)(a) should be furnished to the child to whom it relates, the court shall have regard to the following:
- (a) the age and maturity of the child and the capacity of the child to understand the report;
 - (b) the impact on the child of reading the report and the effect it may have on his or her relationship with his or her parents or guardians;
 - (c) the best interests of the child;

- (d) whether the best interests of the child would be better served by the furnishing of the report to the parent, guardian, next friend of the child or an expert appointed under subsection (1)(b), rather than to the child himself or herself.
- (6) An expert appointed under subsection (1)(b) shall—
 - (a) ascertain the maturity of the child,
 - (b) where requested by the court, ascertain whether or not the child is capable of forming his or her views on the matters that are the subject of the proceedings, and report to the court accordingly,
 - (c) where paragraph (b) does not apply, or where paragraph (b) applies and the expert ascertains that the child is capable of forming his or her own views on the matters that are the subject of the proceedings—
 - (i) ascertain the views of the child either generally or on any specific questions on which the court may seek the child's views, and
 - (ii) furnish to the court a report, which shall put before the court any views expressed by the child in relation to the matters to which the proceedings relate.
 - (7) The court or a party to proceedings to which this section applies may call as a witness in the proceedings an expert appointed under subsection (1).
 - (8) Where, in proceedings referred to in subsection (1), the court has made an order under paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1), nothing in this section shall prevent the court from—
 - (a) making a further order under either or both of those paragraphs, or
 - (b) in making such a further order, appointing the same or a different expert to perform the function concerned.
 - (9) The fees and expenses of an expert appointed under subsection (1) shall be paid by such parties to the proceedings concerned and in such proportions, or by such party to the proceedings, as the court may determine.
 - (10) The Minister may, in consultation with the Minister for Children and Youth Affairs, by regulation specify—
 - (a) the qualifications and experience of an expert appointed under this section, and
 - (b) the fees and allowable expenses that may be charged by such an expert.

- (11) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (10), regulations under that subsection may provide for:
- (a) the qualifications, and the minimum level of professional experience, to be held by an expert,
 - (b) the minimum standards that shall apply to the performance by an expert of his or her functions under this section, and
 - (c) such other matters as the Minister considers necessary to ensure that experts are capable of performing their functions under this section.”.

PART 5

“(i) a spouse or a civil partner;”.

Maintenance by cohabitants of certain dependent children

73. The Act of 1976 is amended by the insertion of the following sections after section 5A:

“Maintenance order (liability of cohabitant to other cohabitant in respect of child of other cohabitant)

5B. (1) This section applies to a cohabitant of a person (in this section referred to as the maintenance applicant) who is a parent of, or who is in loco parentis to, a dependent child who is under the age of 18 years where the cohabitant—

- (a) is not the parent of the dependent child, and
 - (b) is a guardian of the dependent child appointed under section 6C of the Guardianship of Infants Act 1964.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, where it appears to the Court, on application to it by a maintenance applicant, that the applicant’s cohabitant has failed to provide such maintenance for a dependent child referred to in subsection (1) of this section as is proper in the circumstances, the Court may make an order (in this Act referred to as a maintenance order) that the cohabitant make to the maintenance applicant periodical payments, for the support of the child, for such period during the lifetime of the maintenance applicant, of such amount and at such times, as the Court may consider proper.
- (3) The Court, in deciding whether to make a maintenance order under this section for the support of a dependent child referred to in subsection (1) of this section and, if it decides to do so, in determining the amount of any payment, shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case and, in particular, in so far as is practicable, to the following matters—

- (a) the income, earning capacity (if any), property and other financial resources of—
 - (i) the cohabitant,
 - (ii) the maintenance applicant,
 - (iii) the child, and
 - (iv) any other dependent children of the maintenance applicant or the cohabitant,
 - including income or benefits to which the maintenance applicant, the cohabitant, the child or such other dependent children are entitled by or under statute with the exception of a benefit or allowance or any increase in such benefit or allowance in respect of the child or other dependent children granted to either parent of any such children, and
- (b) the financial and other responsibilities of the maintenance applicant and the cohabitant concerned towards—
 - (i) a spouse, civil partner or cohabitant,
 - (ii) the child, and
 - (iii) any other dependent children of the maintenance applicant or the cohabitant,
 - and the needs of such children, including the need for care and attention.

Maintenance order (liability of cohabitant to any person in respect of child of other cohabitant)

- 5C. (1) This section applies to a cohabitant (in this section called the relevant cohabitant) of a person who is a parent of, or who is in loco parentis to, a dependent child who is under the age of 18 years where the relevant cohabitant—
- (a) is not the parent of the dependent child, and
 - (b) is a guardian of the child appointed under section 6C of the Guardianship of Infants Act 1964.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, where it appears to the Court, on application to it by any person, that the relevant cohabitant has failed to provide such maintenance for a dependent child referred to in subsection (1) of this section as is proper in the circumstances, the Court may make an order (in this Act referred to as a maintenance order) that the relevant cohabitant make to the person periodical payments, for the support of the dependent child, for such period during the lifetime of that person, of such amount and at such times, as the Court may consider proper.

- (3) The Court, in deciding whether to make a maintenance order under this section for the support of a dependent child referred to in subsection (1) of this section and, if it decides to do so, in determining the amount of any payment, shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case and, in particular, in so far as is practicable, to the following matters—
- (a) the income, earning capacity (if any), property and other financial resources of—
 - (i) the relevant cohabitant,
 - (ii) the child, and
 - (iii) any other dependent children of the relevant cohabitant, including income or benefits to which the relevant cohabitant, the child or such other dependent children are entitled by or under statute with the exception of a benefit or allowance or any increase in such benefit or allowance in respect of the child or other dependent children granted to either parent of such children, and
 - (b) the financial and other responsibilities of the relevant cohabitant towards—
 - (i) a spouse, civil partner or cohabitant,
 - (ii) the child, and
 - (iii) any other dependent children of the relevant cohabitant, and the needs of any such children, including the need for care and attention.
- (4) The Court shall not make a maintenance order under subsection (2) of this section in relation to a relevant cohabitant in respect of a dependent child referred to in subsection (1) of this section if a maintenance order is in force under section 5B of this Act requiring that cohabitant to make periodical payments for the support of the child unless—
- (a) the cohabitant is not complying with the order under section 5B of this Act, and
 - (b) the Court, having regard to all the circumstances, thinks it proper to do so,
- but, if the Court makes the order under the said subsection (2), any amounts falling due for payment under the order under the said section 5B on or after the date of the making of the order under the said subsection (2) shall not be payable.”.

Amendment of section 6 of Act of 1976

74. Section 6 of the Act of 1976 is amended—

- (a) in subsection (3), by the substitution of “Subject to subsection (3A) of this section, that part of a maintenance order” for “That part of a maintenance order”, and
- (b) by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (3):

“(3A) A maintenance order made under section 5B or 5C of this Act shall stand discharged when the person for whose benefit the order was made attains the age of 18 years.”.

Amendment of section 8A of Act of 1976

75. Section 8A of the Act of 1976 is amended by the substitution of “who are not married to each other and are not civil partners of each other enter into an agreement” for “who are not married to each other enter into an agreement”.

Amendment of section 10 of Act of 1976

76. Section 10 of the Act of 1976 is amended in subsection (3)(b)(i) by the substitution of “whether the person concerned” for “whether the spouse concerned”.

Amendment of section 21A of Act of 1976

77. Section 21A of the Act of 1976 is amended in subsection (1) by the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph (b):

“(b) in relation to a dependent child whose parents are not married to each other and are not civil partners of each other, a parent.”.

Amendment of section 23 of Act of 1976

78. Section 23 of the Act of 1976 is amended—

- (a) in subsection (1), by the substitution of “proceedings under sections 5, 5A, 5B, 5C, 6, 7, 9 and 21A of this Act” for “proceedings under sections 5, 5A, 6, 7, 9 and 21A of this Act”,
 - (b) in subsection (2)—
 - (i) in paragraph (b), by the substitution of “under section 5, 5A, 5B, 6, 7 or 9” for “under section 5, 6, 7 or 9”, and
 - (ii) in paragraph (c), by the substitution of “under section 5, 5A, 5B, 6, 7 or 9” for “under section 5, 6, 7 or 9”,
- and
- (c) by the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (3):

- “(3) In proceedings under this Act, each party to the proceedings shall give to the other party such particulars of his or her financial circumstances, including property and income, and in so far as is practicable, the financial circumstances of his or her dependent children, as may reasonably be required for the purpose of the proceedings.”.

PART 7

AMENDMENTS TO STATUS OF CHILDREN ACT 1987

Amendment of section 33 of Act of 1987

79. Section 33 of the Act of 1987 is amended by the insertion of the following definitions:

- “ ‘Act of 2015’ means the Children and Family Relationships Act 2015;
 ‘adopted person’ has the same meaning as in section 3(2)(b) of this Act;
 ‘donor-conceived child’ has the same meaning as in Part 2 of the Act of 2015;
 ‘parent’ includes a second parent;
 ‘second parent’, in relation to a donor-conceived child, means a person who is a parent of the child under section 5(1)(b) of the Act of 2015, other than a person who is a parent under that section by virtue of a declaration obtained under section 21 or 22 of that Act.”.

Amendment of section 35 of Act of 1987

80. Section 35 of the Act of 1987 is amended—

(a) by the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (1):

- “(1) A person specified in subsection (1A) of this section may apply to the Court for a declaration under this section that—
- (a) a person named in the application is or is not the mother,
 - (b) a person named in the application is or is not the father or second parent, or
 - (c) 2 persons named in the application are or are not the parents, of a person (other than a person who is an adopted person) named in the application (in this section referred to as the ‘person concerned’).”.

(b) by the insertion of the following subsections after subsection (1):

- “(1A) An application for a declaration under this section may be made, in relation to a person concerned, by—
- (a) the person concerned,

- (b) any person seeking a declaration that he or she is the mother, father or second parent of the person concerned, or
 - (c) any person seeking a declaration that he or she is not the mother, father or second parent of the person concerned.
- (1B) Where an application for a declaration under this section is made by a person referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (1A) of this section in relation to a person concerned, the person concerned shall be joined as a party to the proceedings.”,
- (c) in subsection (3), by the substitution of “Where an application for a declaration under this section is made in relation to a person concerned who was not born in the State, the person making the application shall specify” for “Where a person not born in the State makes an application for a declaration by virtue of subsection (1)(b) of this section, he shall specify”,
 - (d) by the deletion of subsection (4), and
 - (e) by the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (8):
 - “(8) Where on an application under subsection (1) of this section it is proved on the balance of probabilities that—
 - (a) a person named in the application is or is not the mother,

95. The Act of 2004 is amended by the insertion of the following section after section 23A:

- “23B. (1) Where the birth of a child has been registered under this Act or the repealed enactments a registrar shall re-register the birth in such manner as an tArd-Chláraitheoir may direct and shall enter in the register the name of a person (‘the person’) as the parent of the child if the mother, the person or the child to whose birth the registration relates and who has attained the age of 18 years so requests and gives to the registrar a document purporting to be a copy of a declaration made by the District Court under section 21 of the Act of 2015, or by the Circuit Court under section 22 of the Act of 2015, and to be certified by or on behalf of the court to be a true copy of the order finding that the person is the parent of the child.
- (2) Where the birth of a donor-conceived child has been registered, whether or not anybody other than the child’s mother has been registered as a parent of the child, under this Act or the repealed enactments a registrar shall re-register the birth in such manner as an tArd-Chláraitheoir may direct and shall enter in the register the name of a person (‘the person’) as the parent of the child if the mother, the person or the child to whose birth the registration relates and who has attained the age of 18 years so requests and gives to the registrar a document purporting to be a copy of a declaration made by the Circuit Court under section 35 of the Status of Children Act 1987, and to be certified by or on behalf of the court to be a true copy of the order finding that the person is the parent of the child.
- (3) A birth shall not be re-registered under this section without the consent of a Superintendent Registrar of the registration area to which the registrar is assigned.
- (4) Where a birth is re-registered under this section, the surname of the child entered in the register shall be—
- (a) that which was previously registered, or
- (b) a surname determined in accordance with Part 1 of the First Schedule.
- (5) Where one of the persons to whom subsection (1) applies makes a request to a registrar under that provision, the registrar shall notify any other persons referred to in that provision capable of making a request.
- (6) Where one of the persons to whom subsection (2) applies makes a request to a registrar under that provision, the registrar shall notify any other persons referred to in that provision capable of making a request and anybody registered as a parent, other than the mother, of the child, as the case may be.
- ”

- (7) When a birth is being re-registered under this section, the register shall be signed by—
 - (a) the mother of the child, if she has made, or joined in the making of, the request under subsection (1) or (2),
 - (b) the person declared by the court referred to in subsection (1) or (2) to be the parent of the child, if he or she has made, or joined in the making of, the request under that subsection, and
 - (c) the child to whom the registration relates, if he or she has reached the age of 18 where he or she has made, or joined in the making of the request concerned under subsection (1) or (2).
- (8) The registrar shall notify the Superintendent Registrar of the registration area to which the registrar is assigned, who shall advise an tArd-Chláraitheoir of a request in that behalf, and an tArd-Chláraitheoir, on production to him or her of such evidence as he or she considers adequate to show that exceptional circumstances exist such that it is necessary for the relief of undue hardship, may direct the Superintendent Registrar to cause the birth to be re-registered notwithstanding that a person referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (7) has not signed the register.
- (9) When a birth is re-registered under this section, the then existing entry relating to the birth shall be retained in the register.
- (10) Where the person declared by the court referred to in subsection (1) or (2) to be the parent of the child is a male, he may be registered as the father of the child.”.

140. Section 45 of the Act of 2010 is amended—

(a) by the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (1):

“(1) (a) Subject to subsection (3), where it appears to the court, on application to it by a civil partner, that the other civil partner has failed to provide maintenance for the applicant civil partner and any dependent child of the civil partners that is proper in the circumstances, the court may make an order that the other civil partner make to the applicant periodical payments for the support of the applicant and the dependent child of the civil partners, for the period during the lifetime of the applicant, of the amount and at the times that the court may consider proper.

(b) Subject to subsection (3), where a civil partner—

(i) is dead,

(ii) has deserted, or has been deserted by, the other civil partner, or

(iii) is living separately and apart from the other civil partner, and there is a dependent child of the civil partners (not being a child who is being fully maintained by either civil partner), then, if it appears to the court, on application to it by any person, that the surviving civil partner or, as the case may be, either civil partner has failed to provide such maintenance for the dependent child of the civil partners as is proper in the circumstances, the court may make an order that that civil partner make to that person periodical payments, for the support of the dependent child, for such period during the lifetime of that person, of such amount and at such times, as the court may consider proper.

(c) A maintenance order or a variation order shall specify each part of a payment under the order that is for the support of a dependent child of the civil partners and may specify the period during the lifetime of the person applying for the order for which so much of a payment under the order as is for the support of a dependent child of the civil partners shall be made.”,

and

(b) by the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (3):

“(3) The court, in deciding whether to make a maintenance order and, if it decides to do so, in determining the amount of any payment, shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case, including—

(a) the income, earning capacity, property and other financial resources of—

- (i) the civil partners and any dependent child of the civil partners, and
 - (ii) any other dependent child of which either civil partner is a parent, including income or benefits to which either civil partner or any such child is entitled by or under statute with the exception of a benefit or allowance or any increase in such benefit or allowance in respect of any dependent child granted to either parent of such child,
- (b) the financial and other responsibilities of—
- (i) the civil partners towards each other and towards any dependent child of the civil partners and the needs of any such child, including the need for care and attention,
 - (ii) each civil partner as a parent towards any other dependent child, and the needs of any such child, including the need for care and attention, and
 - (iii) each civil partner towards any former spouse or civil partner,
and
- (c) in relation to a maintenance order or part of a maintenance order for the benefit of the civil partner, the conduct of each civil partner, if that conduct is such that, in the opinion of the court, it would in all the circumstances be unjust to disregard it.”.

Amendment of section 46 of Act of 2010141. Section 46 of the Act of 2010 is amended—

- (a) in subsection (1), by the substitution of “the person for whose support it provides” for “the maintenance creditor”, and
- (b) by the insertion of the following subsections after subsection (3):
 - “(4) That part of a maintenance order which provides for the support of a dependent child shall stand discharged when the child ceases to be a dependent child by reason of his or her attainment of the age of 18 years or 23 years, as the case may be, and shall be discharged by the court, on application to it under subsection (1) or (2), if it is satisfied that the child has for any reason ceased to be a dependent child for the purposes of the order.
 - (5) Desertion by, or conduct of, a civil partner shall not be a ground for discharging or varying any part of a maintenance order that provides for the support of a dependent child of the civil partners.”.

Amendment of section 47 of Act of 2010

- 142. Section 47 of the Act of 2010 is amended by the substitution of “the needs of the persons for whose support the maintenance order is sought and the other circumstances” for “the needs of the applicant and the other circumstances”.

- (a) in subsection (1), by the substitution of “on making a maintenance order or a variation order” for “on making a maintenance order under section 45”, and
 - (b) by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (2):

“(2A) Where the court makes an order under subsection (1) that is for the benefit of a child, the court may specify in the order the manner in which, or purpose for which, the payment or payments referred to in that subsection are to be applied, including in providing suitable accommodation for the child to whom the order relates.”.

Amendment of section 52 of Act of 2010

- 145. Section 52 of the Act of 2010 is amended by the substitution of “on making a maintenance order or a variation order” for “on making a maintenance order under section 45”.

Failure to make payments and certificate of outstanding payments

- 146. The Act of 2010 is amended by the insertion of the following sections in Part 5 after section 52:

“Failure to make payments to be contempt of court

- 52A. (1) Subject to this section it shall be contempt of court for a maintenance debtor to fail to make a payment due under an antecedent order.
- (2) As respects a contempt of court arising pursuant to this section, a judge of the District Court shall, subject to this section, have such powers, including the power to impose a sanction, as are exercisable by a judge of the High Court in relation to contempt of court in proceedings before the High Court.

- (3) Where a payment under an antecedent order made by the District Court has not been made, the maintenance creditor may apply to the District Court clerk concerned for the issue of a summons directing the maintenance debtor to appear before the District Court.
- (4) A summons referred to in subsection (3) shall—
 - (a) be issued by the District Court clerk concerned,
 - (b) contain a statement that failure to make a payment in accordance with the order concerned constitutes a contempt of court and giving details of the consequences of the court finding that a contempt of court has taken place including in particular the possibility of imprisonment,
 - (c) state that the maintenance debtor may be arrested if he or she fails to appear before the District Court as directed in the summons, and
 - (d) be served on the maintenance debtor personally, or in such other manner authorised by a judge of the District Court.
- (5) If the maintenance debtor fails, without reasonable excuse, to appear before the court in answer to the summons, the judge of the District Court, on the application of the maintenance creditor, shall, if satisfied that the debtor was served with the summons, issue a warrant for the arrest of the maintenance debtor.
- (6) A maintenance debtor arrested pursuant to a warrant issued under subsection (5) shall be brought as soon as practicable before the District Court.
- (7) Where a maintenance debtor is arrested and brought before the District Court under subsection (6), the judge shall fix a new date for the hearing of the summons and direct that the creditor be informed by the District Court by notice in writing of the date so fixed, and shall explain to the debtor in ordinary language—
 - (a) that he or she is required to attend before the court at the date next fixed for the hearing of the summons,
 - (b) that failure to attend may in itself constitute a contempt of court and the consequences of such contempt, including in particular the possibility of imprisonment, and that such contempt and the consequences which may follow are in addition to the consequences arising by reason of failure to make a payment under the antecedent order, and
 - (c) that he or she is entitled to apply for legal advice and legal aid under the Civil Legal Aid Act 1995.

- (8) At the hearing of the summons, before hearing evidence from any party the judge shall explain to the debtor in ordinary language—
- (a) the consequences, and in particular the possibility of imprisonment, which may follow a failure to make a payment in accordance with an antecedent order, and
 - (b) unless the maintenance debtor has already been so informed under subsection (7), that he or she is entitled to apply for legal advice and legal aid under the Civil Legal Aid Act 1995.
- (9) On the hearing of the summons, having given to the maintenance debtor the explanations referred to in subsection (8), having given the maintenance debtor an opportunity to apply for legal advice and legal aid, and having heard such evidence as may be adduced by the maintenance creditor and the maintenance debtor, if the judge is satisfied that the payment concerned has not been made, and—
- (a) that the failure to make the payment concerned is due to—
 - (i) the inability of the maintenance debtor to make the payment concerned by reason of a change in his or her financial circumstances which occurred since the antecedent order or an order varying that order was last made (whichever is the later), or
 - (ii) some other reason not attributable to any act or omission of the maintenance debtor,the judge may, where he or she believes that to do so would improve the likelihood of the payment concerned being made within a reasonable period, adjourn the hearing—
 - (I) to enable the outstanding payment to be made, or
 - (II) to enable an application to be made for an attachment of earnings order under section 53,
 - (b) that the failure to make the payment concerned is due to the inability of the maintenance debtor to make the payment concerned by reason of a change in his or her financial circumstances which occurred since the antecedent order or an order varying that order was last made (whichever is the later) the judge may, where the antecedent order was made by the District Court, treat the hearing as an application to vary the antecedent order, and having heard evidence as to the financial circumstances of both the maintenance debtor and the maintenance creditor, make an order varying the antecedent order.
- (10) Where on the hearing of the summons, having given to the maintenance debtor the explanations referred to in subsection (8), having given the maintenance debtor an opportunity to apply for legal advice and legal aid, and having heard such evidence as may be adduced by the maintenance creditor and the maintenance debtor, the judge is satisfied that the payment concerned has not been made and that the failure to make the payment concerned is not due—

- (a) the inability of the maintenance debtor to make the payment concerned by reason of a change in his or her financial circumstances which occurred since the antecedent order or an order varying that order was last made (whichever is the later), or
- (b) some other reason not attributable to any act or omission of the maintenance debtor, the judge may treat the failure by the maintenance debtor to make the payment concerned as constituting contempt of court and the judge may deal with the matter accordingly.

- (11) Where a maintenance debtor to whom subsection (7) applies does not attend court on the date fixed for the hearing of the summons the judge may treat such failure to attend court as constituting contempt of court and the judge may deal with the matter accordingly.
- (12) In this section ‘financial circumstances’ means, in relation to a person—
 - (a) the amount of the person’s annual income,
 - (b) the aggregate value of all property (real and personal) belonging to the person,
 - (c) the aggregate of all liabilities of the person including any duty (moral or legal) to provide financially for members of his or her family or other persons,
 - (d) the aggregate of all monies owing to the person, the dates upon which they fall due to be paid and the likelihood of their being paid, and
 - (e) such other circumstances as the court considers appropriate.
- (13) This section does not apply unless the antecedent order concerned was actually made by the District Court.

Certificate of outstanding payments

52B. Where, pursuant to section 50, a court has made a maintenance order, a variation order or an interim order and directed that payments under the order be made to the District Court clerk, in any proceedings under this Act or under the Enforcement of Court Orders Acts 1926 to 2009, a certificate purporting to be signed by the relevant District Court clerk as to the amount of monies outstanding on foot of such order shall, until the contrary is shown, be evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.”

Birth and funeral expenses of dependent child

147. The Act of 2010 is amended by the insertion of the following section in Part 7 after section 67:

“Birth and funeral expenses of dependent child

67A. (1) The court may make an order (in this section referred to as a ‘lump sum order’) where it appears to the court on application by a civil partner in relation to a dependent child of the civil partners that the other civil partner has failed to make such contribution as is proper in the circumstances towards the expenses incidental to either or both—

- (a) the birth of a child who is a dependent child or who would have been a dependent child were he or she alive at the time of the application for a lump sum order,
- (b) the funeral of a child who was a dependent child or who would have been a dependent child had he or she been born alive, and any lump sum order shall direct the respondent civil partner to pay to the applicant a lump sum not exceeding €4,000, but no such order shall direct the payment of an amount exceeding €2,000 in respect of the birth of a child to whom this section relates or €2,000 in respect of the funeral of such a child.

- (2) Subsection (3) of section 45 shall apply for the purpose of determining the amount of any lump sum under this section as it applies for the purpose of determining the amount of any payment under that section.
- (3) (a) Nothing in this section, apart from this subsection, shall prejudice any right of a person otherwise to recover moneys expended in relation to the birth or funeral of a child.
- (b) Where an application for a lump sum order has been determined, the applicant shall not be entitled otherwise to recover from the respondent moneys in relation to matters so determined.”.

Custody of dependent children of civil partners after decree of nullity

148. The Act of 2010 is amended by the insertion of the following section in Part 11 after section 108:

“Custody of dependent children of civil partners after decree of nullity

108A. Where the court grants a decree of nullity, it may declare either of the civil partners concerned to be unfit to have custody of any dependent child of the civil partners who is under the age of 18 years and, if it does so and the civil partner to whom the declaration relates is a parent of any dependent child of the civil partners who is under the age of 18 years, that civil partner shall not, on the death of the other civil partner, be entitled as of right to the custody of that child.”.

Amendment of section 2 of Student Support Act 2011

180. Section 2 of the Student Support Act 2011 is amended in the definition of “parent” by the substitution of “guardian appointed under the Guardianship of Infants Act 1964, other than a temporary guardian appointed under section 6E of that Act” for “guardian appointed under the Guardianship of Children Acts 1964 to 1997”.
