EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation).

These Regulations are made by the Revenue Commissioners under the provisions of section 917EA of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997. This section was inserted by section 164 of the Finance Act 2003 and was made subject to a commencement order by the Minister for Finance. This order was signed on 28 July 2008.

The Regulations underpin Revenue's programme to establish the use of electronic channels as the normal way of conducting tax business by providing for mandatory electronic repayment where tax repayments are due to certain categories of taxpayers falling within the mandatory electronic filing and payment of taxes regime.

Specifically, the Regulations extend mandatory electronic repayment to the categories of taxpayers governed by the following Statutory Instruments.

1. S.I. No. 223 of 2011 — which extended the obligation to file returns and pay liabilities electronically, with effect from 1 June 2011, to:

- Self-assessed individuals filing a return of payments to third parties.

With effect from 1 October 2011, employers with more than 10 employees are required to file their returns electronically.

2. S.I. No. 156 of 2012 — which extended the obligation to file returns and pay liabilities electronically, with effect from 1 June 2012, to:

- Self-assessed individuals claiming certain income exemptions (Artists Exemption, Woodlands Exemption, Patent Income Exemption).
- Self-assessed individuals claiming certain retirement related reliefs (relief for Retirement Annuity Contract payments, relief for PRSA contributions, relief in relation to Overseas Pension Plans (migrant member relief), Retirement Relief for Sportspersons, relief for Superannuation Contributions/Additional Voluntary Contributions).

- All taxpayers registered for VAT.

3. S.I. No. 572 of 2014 — which extended the obligation to file returns and pay liabilities electronically, with effect from 1 January 2015, to:

- All individual taxpayers who register (or who are obliged to register) for income tax under self-assessment from 1 January 2015 onwards, including individuals who deregister after that date and who sub-sequently recommence business activities.
