(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) and, in the case of paragraph (h), without prejudice also to the generality of section 3 of the Act of 1972, regulations under this section may make provision for—

(a) the regulator’s enforcement functions, including additional functions that may be assigned to it,

(b) the procedures for the making of complaints under this Act, including the format, timing, evidence, standing and other requirements for efficient and fair processing of complaints,

(c) the regulator’s enforcement powers, including a power to hold hearings,

(d) the means and methods of publication of decisions, offences, penalties and fines for non-compliance,

(f) specifying additional agricultural and food products to which this Act applies (in accordance with section 6(2)(c)),

(6) In this section, “Act of 1972” means the European Communities Act 1972.

CHAPTER 4

Criminal proceedings

Time limit for instituting summary proceedings

81. Notwithstanding section 10(4) of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act 1851, summary proceedings for an offence under this Act may be instituted at any time within three years from the date on which the offence was alleged to have been committed.

Liability for offences by bodies corporate

82. (1) If an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate and is proved to have been committed with the consent, connivance or approval of, or to have been attributable to neglect on the part of, a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate or a person purporting to act in any of those capacities, that person, as well as the body corporate, commits the offence (whether or not the body corporate is prosecuted for it).
(2) In a prosecution of a person for an offence by virtue of subsection (1), if it is proved that at the material time the person was or purported to act as a director of the body corporate or an employee whose duties included making decisions that could have significantly affected the management of the body corporate, it shall be presumed unless and until the contrary is shown (the burden of proof being an evidential one only) that the person consented to the acts or defaults that constitute the offence.

(3) If the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsections (1) and (2) apply in relation to the acts or defaults of a member in connection with the member’s functions of management as if the member were a director or manager of the body corporate.

(4) If a body corporate commits an offence under this Act, an employee, officer, director or agent of the body corporate who authorises, permits or acquiesces in the commission of the offence also commits the offence (whether or not the body corporate is prosecuted for it).

(5) In a prosecution for an offence under this Act, it is sufficient proof of the offence to establish that it was committed by an employee, officer, director or agent of the defendant, whether or not the employee, officer, director or agent is identified or has been prosecuted for the offence.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply if the defendant establishes that the defendant exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

Fines and penalties

83. (1) A person who commits an offence under section 78(5) is liable, on summary conviction, to a class A fine.

(2) A person who commits an offence under any other provision of this Act (other than section 66 or section 80(5)) is liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to a class A fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to both, or

(b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine not exceeding €500,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, or to both.

Convicted persons liable for costs

84. (1) On convicting a person of an offence under this Act, the court shall, unless satisfied that there are special and substantial reasons for not so doing, order the person to pay to the regulator the costs and expenses, measured by the court, incurred by the regulator in relation to the investigation, detection and prosecution of the offence.

(2) An order for costs and expenses under subsection (1) is in addition to any fine or penalty the court may impose.
Proceedings instituted by regulator

85. The regulator may prosecute summarily an offence under this Act.

Fixed payment notice

86. (1) This section applies where an authorised officer has reasonable grounds for believing that a person is committing or has committed an offence under section 66, section 78(5) or section 80.

(2) The authorised officer shall report this to an authorised officer designated for the purposes of this subsection.

(3) An officer who receives a report under subsection (2) may serve on the person a notice in writing (a “fixed payment notice”) stating that—

(a) the person is alleged to have committed the offence,

(b) the person may during the period of 28 days beginning on the date of the notice make to the regulator, at the address specified in the notice, a payment of €250,

(c) the person is not obliged to make the payment,

(d) a prosecution in respect of the alleged offence will not be instituted during the period in paragraph (b), and

(e) if the payment specified in the notice is made during that period, no prosecution in respect of the alleged offence will be instituted.

(4) Where a fixed payment notice is served—

(a) the person to whom the notice applies may make the payment required during the specified period,

(b) the regulator may receive the payment, issue a receipt for it and retain the money so paid, and the payment is not recoverable in any circumstances by the person who made it,

(c) a prosecution in respect of the alleged offence may not be instituted in the period specified in the notice, and

(d) if the payment specified is made during that period, no prosecution in respect of the alleged offence may be instituted.

(5) In proceedings for an offence referred to in subsection (1), the onus of proving that a payment in accordance with a fixed payment notice has been made lies on the person on whom the fixed payment notice was served.

(6) In proceedings for an offence referred to in subsection (1), it is a defence for the accused to show that payment has been made pursuant to a fixed payment notice issued in respect of the offence.

(7) The Minister may by order specify an amount not exceeding €1,000 in place of the amount specified in subsection (3)(b) and different amounts may be specified in respect of different offences.
