Repeals

6. Part IV, other than section 19A, of the Act of 1995 is repealed.

PART 2JUDICIAL APPOINTMENTS COMMISSION*Establishment day

7. The Minister shall, by order, appoint a day to be the establishment day for the purposes of this Act.

Establishment of Judicial Appointments Commission

8. (1) There shall stand established on the establishment day a body to be known as An Coimisiún um Cheapacháin Bhreithiúnacha or, in the English language, the Judicial Appointments Commission (in this Act referred to as the “Commission”).
- (2) The Schedule shall apply to the Commission.

Membership of Commission

9. (1) The Commission shall consist of 9 members, subject to section 45, being—

- (a) the Chief Justice,
 - (b) subject to subsection (2), the President of the Court of Appeal,
 - (c) 2 members of the Judicial Council nominated and appointed in accordance with section 12,
 - (d) subject to subsection (3), the Attorney General, and
 - (e) 4 lay members appointed under section 13.
- (2) Where the Commission is performing the function of selecting and recommending persons for appointment to judicial office in the High Court, Circuit Court or District Court, the President of the Court concerned, and not the President of the Court of Appeal, shall be the member for the purpose of performance of that function.
- (3) The Attorney General shall not, as a member of the Commission, have a right to vote on any matter coming before the Commission for a vote.
- (4) The Chief Justice shall be the chairperson of the Commission.

Functions of Commission

- 10. (1) The general functions of the Commission shall be—
- (a) to select and recommend persons—
 - (i) to the Minister for appointment and nomination for appointment to judicial office, and
 - (ii) to the Minister for Foreign Affairs in so far as a nomination for election to the European Court of Human Rights and the International Criminal Court is concerned,
 - and
 - (b) for the purposes of paragraph (a), to adopt a statement of selection procedures and a statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes for inclusion in a judicial selection statement.
- (2) The Commission shall be independent in the performance of its functions.
- (3) The Commission shall have all such powers as are necessary or expedient for the performance of its functions.

Power to appoint consultants and advisers and enter into contracts

- 11. (1) The Commission may, as it considers necessary to assist it in the performance of its functions—
- (a) enter into contracts or arrangements with any person, and
 - (b) with the consent of the Minister, appoint consultants or advisers.
- (2) Subject to section 57(6), a contract or arrangement with a person, or appointment of a consultant or adviser, referred to in subsection (1) shall not enable the person, consultant or advisor to do any thing for the purpose of the performance by the Commission of the function of selection and recommendation of persons for appointment or for nomination for appointment or election to judicial office.

- (3) The Commission may, out of the resources at its disposal, pay to a person, consultant or adviser referred to in subsection (1) such fees (if any) or allowances for expenses (if any) as the Commission may determine.
- (4) The appointment of a consultant or adviser shall be for such period and, subject to subsection (3), be on such terms and conditions, as the Commission considers appropriate.

Nomination of members of Judicial Council and appointment as members of Commission

12. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Judicial Council shall nominate 2 members of the Council to be members of the Commission.

- (2) The 2 nominees shall comprise one male and one female nominee—
 - (a) one of whom shall be a judge of the Supreme Court, of the Court of Appeal or of the High Court and one of whom shall be a judge of the Circuit Court or the District Court, and
 - (b) one of whom shall be a judge who, at the time of his or her appointment as a judge, was qualified for such appointment by virtue of having been a practising solicitor and one of whom shall be a judge who, at the time of his or her appointment as a judge, was qualified for such appointment by virtue of having been a practising barrister.
- (3) The Judicial Council shall not nominate the President of the High Court, the President of the Circuit Court or the President of the District Court to be a member of the Commission.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), a reference to having been qualified for such appointment by virtue of having been a practising solicitor or practising barrister shall, in relation to a judge who at the time of his or her appointment as a judge was qualified for such appointment by virtue of section 45A of the Act of 1961, be taken to be a reference to having been qualified for such appointment by virtue of having been, as part of that qualification, a practising barrister or practising solicitor, as the case may be, in accordance with that section.
- (5) The Minister shall appoint each person nominated under subsection (1) to be a member of the Commission.
- (6) Where a judge, appointed under this section, ceases to be a member of the Commission in accordance with section 18(4), the Judicial Council shall nominate a judge—
 - (a) of the same gender as the judge who ceases to be a member,
 - (b) of the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeal or the High Court if the judge who ceases to be a member was a judge of one of those courts, or of the Circuit Court or District Court if the judge who ceases to be a member was a judge of one of those courts, and

- (c) who was qualified for appointment as a judge, as referred to in subsection (2)(b), on the same basis as the judge who is being replaced.
- (7) The Minister shall appoint the person nominated under subsection (6) to be a member of the Commission and that person shall hold office for that period of the term of office of the member, who occasioned that vacancy, that remains unexpired at the date of such appointment.

Recommendation for appointment and appointment of lay members

13. (1) The Minister shall, from time to time as required, request the Public Appointments Service to undertake a selection process for the purpose of identifying and recommending to the Minister persons whom it is satisfied are suitable for appointment as lay members.
- (2) Upon receipt of a request under subsection (1), the Public Appointments Service shall undertake a selection process and, subject to subsection (3), recommend to the Minister, from among the persons who participated in the process, those persons whom it is satisfied are suitable for appointment as lay members.
 - (3) The Minister shall agree with the Public Appointments Service the selection criteria and procedures applicable to a selection process under this section having regard to—
 - (a) the objective that the lay members will, having regard to the functions of the Commission, amongst them possess knowledge of, and experience, qualifications, training or expertise in, the matters specified in subsection (4),
 - (b) the need, in so far as possible, to ensure that recommendations made under subsection (2) should comprise an equal number of women and men and reflect the diversity of the population of the State as a whole, and
 - (c) the need to ensure that a person recommended to the Minister under subsection (2) is a fit and proper person to be a lay member.
 - (4) The matters referred to in subsection (3) are matters connected with—
 - (a) business, finance or public service,
 - (b) corporate governance and human resources (including making, or recommending persons for, senior appointments),
 - (c) the courts and the operation of the justice system both in the State and in places outside the State, and
 - (d) the importance of protection of human rights and equality.
 - (5) Subject to subsection (6), the Minister shall appoint lay members from among the persons recommended by the Public Appointments Service under subsection (2).
 - (6) The Minister shall not make an appointment under subsection (5) unless a resolution approving the appointment has been passed by each House of the Oireachtas.

- (7) The Minister may, prior to the establishment day, designate a person or persons, the subject of a recommendation under subsection (2), to be the first lay member or members of the Commission.
- (8) If, immediately before the establishment day, a person stands designated to be a first lay member under subsection (7), the person shall be taken to have been appointed as a lay member on that day.
- (9) A resolution referred to in subsection (6) shall not be required in respect of an appointment under subsection (8).

Terms and conditions of membership of Commission

14. (1) Each member of the Commission shall act on a part-time basis subject to such terms and conditions (other than the payment of remuneration and allowances for expenses) as the Minister may determine.
- (2) Each lay member shall be paid by the Commission such remuneration (if any) and allowances for expenses (if any) as the Minister may, with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure, National Development Plan Delivery and Reform, from time to time determine.
- (3) There may be paid by the Commission such allowances for expenses (if any), incurred by lay members on a panel established under section 46(2), as the Commission may, with the consent of the Minister and the Minister for Public Expenditure, National Development Plan Delivery and Reform, determine.
- (4) Subject to section 19(3)—
 - (a) a lay member shall hold office for a period of 3 years from the date of his or her appointment, and
 - (b) where the lay member's term of office expires with the passage of time, he or she may be reappointed by the Minister to the Commission for one further period of 3 years without a further recommendation by the Public Appointments Service or a further resolution under section 13(6).
- (5) Subject to section 18(4)—
 - (a) a member of the Judicial Council who is appointed as a member of the Commission under section 12 shall hold office for a period of 3 years from the date of his or her appointment, and
 - (b) where that member's term of office expires with the passage of time, he or she may be nominated by the Judicial Council under section 12 for appointment for one further period of 3 years.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (5) shall be construed as preventing a judge, who has been a member of the Commission, from being a member of the Commission in accordance with—

- (a) subsection (1)(a) or (b) or (2) of section 9, by virtue of holding the office of Chief Justice, President of the Court of Appeal, President of the High Court, President of the Circuit Court or President of the District Court,
- (b) subsections (2) and (3) of section 45, by virtue of being the next most senior judge referred to in those provisions, or
- (c) subsection (2) or (3) of section 18, by virtue of being the most senior ordinary judge referred to in those provisions.

Procedures of Commission

- 15. (1) The Commission shall hold such and so many meetings as may be necessary for the due performance of its functions.
- (2) The chairperson shall fix the date, time and place of the first meeting of the Commission which shall be a date no later than the end of the period of 3 months beginning on the establishment day.
- (3) At a meeting of the Commission the chairperson shall, if present, be the chairperson of the meeting or, where the chairperson is absent, the most senior judge present shall be chairperson of the meeting.
- (4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commission shall regulate its own procedures.
- (5) The quorum for a meeting of the Commission shall, unless the Minister otherwise directs, be 6 members, not less than 3 of whom shall be lay members.
- (6) The Commission may act notwithstanding one or more vacancies in its membership.

Committees of Commission

- 16. (1) The Commission may establish one or more committees of the Commission to assist it in the performance of its functions under this Act.
- (2) A committee shall consist of such and so many members of the Commission as may be determined by the Commission and shall have an equal number of lay members and members who are members of the judiciary.
- (3) The chairperson of a committee shall be the Chief Justice or such one of the members of the Commission, referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of section 9(1), as the Chief Justice shall determine.
- (4) A committee shall determine its own procedures.
- (5) There may be paid by the Commission such allowances for expenses (if any), incurred by members of a committee who are lay members, as the Commission may, with the consent of the Minister and the Minister for Public Expenditure, National Development Plan Delivery and Reform, determine.

Remote meetings of Commission and committees

17. (1) Meetings of the Commission or of a committee may consist of a conference between some or all of the members of the Commission or committee, as the case may be, who are not all in one place, but each of whom is able (directly or by means of electronic communications technology) to speak to each of the others and to be heard by each of the others.
- (2) Any decision made, vote taken or other act done by means of a conference referred to in subsection (1) shall be as good and effectual as a decision made, vote taken or other act done by the members concerned would have been if such had been made, taken or done by those members in a meeting of them held in person.
- (3) In this section, “electronic communications technology”, means, in relation to a meeting, technology that enables real time transmission and real time two-way audio-visual or audio communication.

Member of Commission ceasing to hold judicial office or resigning as member of Commission

18. (1) A person who is a member of the Commission by virtue of holding the judicial office of Chief Justice, President of the Court of Appeal, President of the High Court, President of the Circuit Court or President of the District Court shall, upon ceasing for any reason to hold that judicial office, cease to be a member of the Commission.
- (2) Where the person referred to in subsection (1) who ceases to hold judicial office is the Chief Justice, the most senior ordinary judge of the Supreme Court shall be a member of the Commission until the successor to the Chief Justice is appointed.
- (3) Where the person referred to in subsection (1) who ceases to hold judicial office is the President of the Court of Appeal, the President of the High Court, the President of the Circuit Court or the President of the District Court, the most senior ordinary judge of the court concerned shall be a member of the Commission until the successor to the President of the court concerned is appointed.
- (4) A person appointed under section 12 to be a member of the Commission shall, upon ceasing for any reason to hold judicial office, cease to be a member of the Commission and a member shall be nominated and appointed in his or her place in accordance with subsections (6) and (7) of that section.
- (5) A person who is a member of the Commission by virtue of having been appointed under section 12 may resign from the Commission by notice in writing to the Minister and—
- (a) the resignation shall take effect on the date the Minister receives the notice, or, if a date is specified in the notice and the Minister agrees, that date, and
- (b) subsection (4) shall apply, with any necessary modifications, as it applies when he or she ceases to hold judicial office.

Lay member ceasing to be member of Commission

19. (1) A lay member shall cease to be a member of the Commission where he or she ceases to be a lay person.
- (2) A lay member may resign from the Commission by notice in writing to the Minister and the resignation shall take effect on the date the Minister receives the notice or if a date is specified in the notice and the Minister agrees, that date.
- (3) Where a lay member dies, resigns, is removed from office or otherwise ceases to hold office, the casual vacancy shall be filled in accordance with the procedure for the appointment of a lay member by the Minister under section 13 and the person appointed to fill the casual vacancy shall hold office for that period of the term of office of the member who occasioned that vacancy that remains unexpired at the date of that person's appointment.

Ineligibility to become lay member and disqualification to act as lay member

20. A person shall not be eligible for appointment, and shall cease to hold office, as a lay member if he or she—
- (a) is convicted on indictment of an offence,
 - (b) is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty,
 - (c) has a declaration made against him or her under section 819 of the Act of 2014 or is deemed to be subject to such a declaration by virtue of Chapter 5 of Part 14 of that Act, or
 - (d) is subject to, or is deemed to be subject to, a disqualification order within the meaning of Chapter 4 of Part 14 of the Act of 2014 whether by virtue of that Chapter or of any other provision of that Act.

Removal of lay member of Commission

21. (1) The Government may remove a lay member from office where they are satisfied that one or more of the grounds specified in subsection (2) apply to the member and then and only then where a resolution is passed by each House of the Oireachtas calling for the removal of that member from office.
- (2) The grounds referred to in subsection (1) are that a lay member—
- (a) has become incapable through ill health of effectively performing the functions of the office,
 - (b) has committed stated misbehaviour (other than misbehaviour which is the basis for a conviction referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of section 20 as a result of which the member is required to cease to hold office in accordance with that section),
 - (c) has a conflict of interest of such significance that he or she should cease to hold office, or
 - (d) is otherwise unfit to hold office or unable to discharge the functions of the office.

- (3) Where the Government propose to remove a lay member under subsection (1), they shall notify the member concerned in writing of their proposal.
- (4) A notification under subsection (3) shall include a statement—
 - (a) of the reasons for the proposed removal,
 - (b) that the member may make representations to the Government, in such form and manner as may be specified by the Government, as to why the member should not be removed from office and any such representations shall be made before the expiration of—
 - (i) a period of 30 working days from the date of the notification, or
 - (ii) such other period as the Government may, having regard to the requirements of natural justice, specify in the notice,and
 - (c) that where no representations are received within the period referred to in paragraph (b), the Government will, without further notice to the member, proceed with the removal of the member from office in accordance with this section.
- (5) In considering whether to remove a lay member from office, the Government shall take into account—
 - (a) any representations made by the member under subsection (4)(b) within the period referred to in that subsection, and
 - (b) any other matter the Government consider relevant for the purpose of their decision.
- (6) Where, having taken into account the matters referred to in subsection (5), the Government decide the lay member should be removed from office in accordance with this section, the Government shall cause notice to be given in writing to the member of the decision and the reasons for that decision.

Accountability of Director to Public Accounts Committee

- 22. (1) In this section, “Public Accounts Committee” means the Committee of Dáil Éireann established under the Standing Orders of Dáil Éireann to examine and report to Dáil Éireann on the appropriation accounts and reports of the Comptroller and Auditor General.
- (2) The Director shall, whenever required in writing to do so by the Public Accounts Committee, give evidence to that Committee in relation to—
 - (a) the regularity and propriety of the transactions recorded or required to be recorded in any book or other record of account that the Commission is required by this Act to prepare (being a book or record of account that is subject to audit by the Comptroller and Auditor General),
 - (b) the economy and efficiency of the Commission in the use of its resources,

- (c) the systems, procedures and practices employed by the Commission for the purpose of evaluating the effectiveness of its operations, and
 - (d) any matter affecting the Commission referred to in a special report of the Comptroller and Auditor General under section 11(2) of the Comptroller and Auditor General (Amendment) Act 1993 or in any other report of the Comptroller and Auditor General (in so far as that other report relates to a matter specified in paragraph (a), (b) or (c)) that is laid before Dáil Éireann.
- (3) In giving evidence under this section, the Director shall not—
- (a) question or express an opinion on the merits of—
 - (i) any policy of the Government or a Minister of the Government, or
 - (ii) the objectives of such a policy,
 - or
 - (b) give any information that discloses or is likely to disclose proceedings, communications or matters referred to in section 30.

Accountability of Director to other Oireachtas Committees

- 23. (1) In this section, “Committee” means a Committee appointed by either House of the Oireachtas or jointly by both Houses of the Oireachtas (other than the Public Accounts Committee referred to in section 22 or the Committee on Members’ Interests of Dáil Éireann or the Committee on Members’ Interests of Seanad Éireann) or a subcommittee of such a Committee.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Director shall, at the request in writing of a Committee, attend before it to give account for the general administration of the Commission.
- (3) The Director shall not be required to give account before a Committee—
- (a) for any matter which is, has been or may at a future time be, the subject of proceedings before a court or tribunal in the State, or
 - (b) where the giving of such account would involve disclosure of proceedings, communications or matters contrary to section 30.
- (4) Where the Director is of the opinion that a matter in respect of which he or she is requested to give an account before a Committee is a matter to which subsection (3) (a) applies, he or she shall inform the Committee of that opinion and the reasons for the opinion and, unless the information is conveyed to the Committee at a time when the Director is before it, the information shall be so conveyed in writing.
- (5) Where the Director has informed a Committee of his or her opinion in accordance with subsection (4) and the Committee does not withdraw the request referred to in subsection (2) in so far as it relates to a matter the subject of that opinion—
- (a) the Director may, not later than 21 days after being informed by the Committee of its decision not to do so, apply to the High Court in a summary manner for

- determination of the question whether the matter is one to which subsection (3)(a) applies, or
- (b) the chairperson of the Committee may, on behalf of the Committee, make such an application,
- and the High Court shall determine the matter.
- (6) Pending the determination of an application under subsection (5), the Director shall not attend before the Committee to give account for the matter the subject of the application.
- (7) If the High Court determines that the matter concerned is one to which subsection (3)(a) applies, the Committee shall withdraw the request referred to in subsection (2), but if the High Court determines that subsection (3)(a) does not apply, the Director shall attend before the Committee and give account for the matter.
- (8) In the performance of his or her duties under this section, the Director shall not—
- (a) question or express an opinion on the merits of—
- (i) any policy of the Government or a Minister of the Government, or
- (ii) the objectives of such a policy,
- or
- (b) give any information that discloses or is likely to disclose proceedings, communications or matters referred to in section 30.

Advances to Commission

24. The Minister may, with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure, National Development Plan Delivery and Reform, determine the amount or amounts, for the purposes of expenditure by the Commission in the performance of its functions, which shall from time to time be advanced by the Courts Service to the Commission out of moneys provided to it by the Oireachtas.

Accounts

25. (1) The Commission shall keep, in such form as may be approved by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure, National Development Plan Delivery and Reform, all proper and usual accounts (in this section referred to as “annual accounts”) of all moneys received or expended by it.
- (2) Annual accounts shall be submitted by the Commission to the Comptroller and Auditor General for audit not later than 1 April in the year immediately following the financial year to which they relate or on such earlier date as the Minister may specify.
- (3) The Commission shall, immediately after the audit referred to in subsection (2), present to the Minister a copy of—
- (a) the annual accounts, and

- (b) the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General on those accounts.
- (4) The Minister shall cause copies of the annual accounts and report presented to him or her under subsection (3) to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as practicable after such presentation.

Annual report

26. (1) The Commission shall, not later than 6 months after the end of each year, submit to the Minister a report on the activities, including those undertaken pursuant to a diversity statement, of the Commission in the preceding year, and the Minister shall, as soon as may be after receiving the report, cause copies of the report to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas.
- (2) Where a new diversity statement is published in the year to which the annual report relates, the fact of its publication shall be included in the annual report.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if, but for this subsection, the first report under this section would relate to a period of less than 6 months, the report shall relate to that period and to the year immediately following that period and shall be made as soon as may be, but not later than 6 months after the end of that year.
- (4) An annual report submitted to the Minister under subsection (1) shall not contain any information that discloses or is likely to disclose proceedings, communications or matters referred to in section 30.
- (5) The Minister may, having consulted with the Commission, direct the Commission to provide a report under this section in such form and manner as the Minister may specify.
- (6) The Commission shall comply with a direction given under subsection (5).

Request from Minister to Commission for report

27. The Minister may request the Commission to make a report to him or her on any matter relating to the functions of the Commission and the Commission shall comply with the request within the period of time specified in the request or within such other period of time as may be agreed by the Minister and the Commission.

Publication of diversity statement by Commission

28. (1) The Commission shall publish a diversity statement no later than 2 years after the coming into operation of this section and thereafter at least once in every 4 year period or such lesser period as the Commission may from time to time determine.
- (2) A diversity statement shall set out the manner in which the Commission undertakes to give effect to the objective, set out in section 39(2)(b), that membership of the judiciary in each court in the State should reflect the diversity of the population of the State as a whole, and shall include procedures in place to achieve the objective, to the extent feasible and practicable, of improving the diversity of applicants and persons recommended for appointment and for nomination for appointment or election to judicial office including the procedures in place to assist in removing barriers faced by persons within the population as a whole that are under-represented in judicial office.

- (3) The Commission shall consult with the President of the High Court, the President of the Circuit Court and the President of the District Court in so far as the diversity statement relates to judicial office in the court of the President concerned.

Confidential information

- 29. (1) A person shall not, unless he or she is required or permitted by law or duly authorised by the Commission to do so, disclose confidential information obtained by him or her while performing functions as—
- (a) a member of the Commission or a committee, or
 - (b) the Director, a member of staff of the Office, a consultant, advisor or other person who is or was engaged under contract or other arrangement by the Commission.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to a class A fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or both, or
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine not exceeding €50,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or both.
- (3) In this section, “confidential information” includes—
- (a) information that is expressed by the Commission to be confidential either as regards particular information or as regards information of a particular class or description, and
 - (b) proposals of a commercial nature or tenders submitted to the Commission by contractors, consultants or any other person.

Confidentiality of certain proceedings, communications and matters

- 30. (1) This section applies to a person who is or was—
- (a) a member of the Commission or a committee, or
 - (b) the Director, a member of staff of the Office, a consultant, advisor or other person engaged under contract or other arrangement by the Commission.
- (2) In addition to what is provided for in section 29, a person to whom this section applies shall not, unless he or she is required or permitted by law or duly authorised by the Commission to do so, disclose—
- (a) in relation to an applicant and any application under section 43—
 - (i) proceedings of the Commission or of a committee,
 - (ii) communications between the Commission and a committee, or

- (iii) communications between the Commission or a committee and the Minister or the Minister for Foreign Affairs,
 - or
 - (b) any matter concerning the removal of a lay member of the Commission before such removal takes place under section 21.
- (3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) is guilty of an offence and is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to a class A fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or both, or
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine not exceeding €50,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or both.

Records of Commission

31. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission shall keep a record of—
- (a) applications made to it under section 43, and
 - (b) deliberations and recommendations of the Commission relating to appointments or nominations for appointment or election to judicial office.
- (2) Subject to such regulations (if any) which may be made under section 33, where a record referred to in subsection (1) includes personal data or special categories of personal data, those data may be processed, in accordance with the Data Protection Regulation and the Act of 2018, by a person for the purposes of the performance of the functions of the Commission and the Minister under this Act and for the purposes of the performance of the functions of the Government under this Act and the Constitution.

Restriction of rights and obligations under Data Protection Regulation

32. (1) Subject to such regulations (if any) which may be made under section 33, the rights and obligations provided for in Articles 12 to 22 (and Article 5 in so far as its provisions correspond to the rights and obligations provided for in Articles 12 to 22) and Article 34 of the Data Protection Regulation, in so far as the rights and obligations relate to the processing of personal data by a person or body specified in subsection (2), are restricted to the extent necessary and proportionate to enable that person or body to perform his, her or its functions under Part 4.
- (2) A person or body referred to in subsection (1) means—
- (a) the Government,
 - (b) the Minister,
 - (c) the Minister for Foreign Affairs,
 - (d) the Commission,
 - (e) a committee,

- (f) the Office, and
- (g) the Director.

Regulations for purposes of data protection

- 33. The Commission may, with the consent of the Minister, for the purposes of this Act, prescribe by regulations the following:
- (a) a form of consent to the processing of personal data and special categories of personal data to be completed by a data subject who makes an application under section 43;
 - (b) suitable and specific measures, including measures set out in section 36(1) of the Act of 2018, for the processing of personal data and special categories of personal data;
 - (c) where the processing involves data relating to the health of a data subject, additional measures to be taken to safeguard the processing of the data;
 - (d) the period of time during which the rights and obligations referred to in section 32(1) may be restricted under that provision;
 - (e) the period of time during which personal data or special categories of personal data may be processed.

Restriction of Freedom of Information Act 2014

- 34. (1) Without prejudice to any other exemption contained in the Freedom of Information Act 2014, that Act shall not apply to a record (within the meaning of that Act) relating to—
- (a) the process of selecting and recommending persons for appointment or for nomination for appointment or election to judicial office under Part 4, or
 - (b) a consultation under section 56(1) or 57(5),
- other than in so far as the record relates to the general administration of the Commission.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to a record held by the Commission, the Minister, the Minister for Foreign Affairs or the Government.

PART 3

JUDICIAL APPOINTMENTS COMMISSION OFFICE

Judicial Appointments Commission Office

- 35. (1) There shall be attached to the Commission an office to be known as the Judicial Appointments Commission Office (in this Act referred to as the “Office”) which shall assist the Commission in the performance of its functions.

- (2) The Office shall be under the management and control of the Commission and subject to the direction of the Director.
- (3) The Commission may, with the consent of the Minister given with the approval of the Minister for Public Expenditure, National Development Plan Delivery and Reform, appoint such and so many persons to be members of the staff of the Office as it may determine.
- (4) A member of staff of the Office shall be a civil servant in the Civil Service of the State.

Director of Judicial Appointments Commission Office

- 36. (1) The Minister shall request the Public Appointments Service to hold a selection process for the purpose of identifying and recommending a person whom it is satisfied is suitable for appointment as director (in this Act referred to as the “Director”) of the Office—
- (a) as soon as practicable after the coming into operation of this section, and
 - (b) thereafter, from time to time when the position of Director becomes vacant or the Commission anticipates it is to become vacant.
- (2) The Public Appointments Service shall, when requested to do so under subsection (1), hold a selection process and recommend to the Minister such person or persons whom it is satisfied are suitable for appointment as Director.
 - (3) The Minister shall, from among the persons recommended by the Public Appointments Service under subsection (2), appoint a person to be the Director.
 - (4) The Director may be removed from office by the Minister for stated reasons.
 - (5) The Director shall hold office for such period, not exceeding 5 years from the date of his or her appointment, as the Minister shall determine.
 - (6) Subject to subsection (7), a Director whose term of office expires with the passage of time shall be eligible for reappointment by the Minister.
 - (7) A person who is reappointed by the Minister in accordance with subsection (6) shall not hold office for periods the aggregate of which exceeds 10 years.
 - (8) The Director shall hold office under written contract upon and subject to such terms and conditions (including terms and conditions relating to remuneration, allowances and superannuation) as may be determined by the Commission with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure, National Development Plan Delivery and Reform.
 - (9) The Minister may, pending the appointment of a Director following the holding of a selection process under subsection (1), appoint a person to be the Director of the Office on an interim basis (in this subsection referred to as the “interim Director”) and where the Minister does so, the interim Director shall perform all the functions assigned to the Director by or under this Act and a reference in this Act to the Director includes a reference to the interim Director.

Functions of Director

37. (1) The Director shall—
- (a) manage and control generally the staff, administration and business of the Office, and
 - (b) implement the policies and decisions of the Commission.
- (2) The Director shall be responsible to the Commission for the performance of his or her functions and shall provide the Commission with such information, including financial information, in respect of the performance of the Director's functions as the Commission may require.
- (3) The Commission may designate a member of staff of the Office to perform the functions of Director in the absence of the Director or where the position of Director is vacant and a member so designated shall in such absence or upon such position being vacant perform those functions.

Delegation of functions of Director

38. (1) The Director may, with the consent of the Commission in writing, delegate any of his or her functions to a specified member of staff of the Office and that member of staff shall be accountable to the Director for the performance of the functions that are so delegated.
- (2) The Director shall be accountable to the Commission for the performance of functions delegated by him or her in accordance with subsection (1).
- (3) The Director may, with the consent of the Commission in writing, revoke a delegation made in accordance with subsection (1).

PART 4

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR APPOINTMENT AND FOR NOMINATION FOR APPOINTMENT OR ELECTION TO JUDICIAL OFFICE

CHAPTER 1

*Preliminary and GeneralRecommendations to be based on merit

39. (1) A decision by the Commission to recommend a person for appointment or for nomination for appointment or election to judicial office shall be based on merit.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1), where the function of selection and recommendation of persons for appointment to judicial office in the State falls to be performed, account shall be taken, to the extent feasible and practicable, of the objectives that the membership of the judiciary in each court should—
- (a) comprise equal numbers of male and female members,

- (b) reflect the diversity of the population of the State as a whole, and
- (c) include a sufficient number of judges with a proficiency in the Irish language to meet the needs, identified by the Commission following consultations under section 56(4), of users of each court with respect to proceedings being conducted in the Irish language.

Eligible person: qualification for appointment and for nomination for appointment or election to judicial office

40. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person is an eligible person where—

- (a) in the case of the judicial office of Chief Justice, the President of the Court of Appeal and the President of the High Court, he or she is qualified for appointment in accordance with section 5 or 45A of the Act of 1961 in relation to the judicial office concerned,
 - (b) in the case of an appointment to the office of ordinary judge of the Supreme Court, ordinary judge of the Court of Appeal or ordinary judge of the High Court, he or she is qualified for appointment in accordance with section 5(2), (4), (5), (6) or (7) or 45A of the Act of 1961,
 - (c) in the case of an appointment to the office of judge of the Circuit Court, he or she is qualified for appointment in accordance with section 17(2), (2A), (2B), (2C) or (3) or 45A of the Act of 1961,
 - (d) in the case of an appointment to the office of specialist judge of the Circuit Court, he or she is qualified for appointment in accordance with section 17(4) of the Act of 1961,
 - (e) in the case of an appointment to the office of judge of the District Court, he or she is qualified for appointment in accordance with section 29(2) or (3), 35(1) or 45A of the Act of 1961,
 - (f) in the case of a nomination for appointment to be a judge of the Court of Justice, an Advocate General of the Court of Justice or a judge of the General Court, he or she is qualified for appointment in accordance with the requirements of the TFEU,
 - (g) in the case of nomination for election by the Parliamentary Assembly to be a judge of the European Court of Human Rights, he or she satisfies the criteria for office under Article 21 of the European Convention on Human Rights, and
 - (h) in the case of nomination for election to be a judge of the International Criminal Court, he or she is qualified having regard to the eligibility requirements of that Court set out in Article 36 of the Rome Statute.
- (2) For the purposes of the Commission satisfying itself, in accordance with section 46(1)(a)(i), that a person is an eligible person—
- (a) a reference in section 5(2)(a) of the Act of 1961 to immediately before such appointment shall be construed as a reference to immediately before the relevant date,

- (b) a reference in section 5(2)(b) of the Act of 1961 to immediately before the appointment shall be construed as a reference to immediately before the relevant date, and
 - (c) a reference in section 45A(1) and (3) of the Act of 1961 to immediately before such appointment shall be construed as a reference to immediately before the relevant date.
- (3) In this section—
- “Parliamentary Assembly” means the Consultative Assembly established by Article 10 (ii) of the Statute of the Council of Europe done at London on 5 May 1949;
- “relevant date” means the latest date on which an application under section 43 may, in respect of a particular vacancy in a judicial office, be made.

Prohibition on canvassing

- 41. (1) An applicant shall not, in relation to the process of selection and recommendation (including any step that may be taken in consequence of such a recommendation) of persons for appointment or for nomination for appointment or election to the judicial office to which his or her application relates—
- (a) canvass, or attempt to canvass, support for his or her application from any person involved in that process,
 - (b) attempt to improperly influence a decision of any person in that process,
 - (c) otherwise interfere with or compromise that process in any way, or
 - (d) procure or counsel another person, on his or her behalf, to engage in the conduct referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be disqualified and excluded from the process and shall not be recommended for appointment or nominated for appointment or election, as the case may be, or appointed, to the judicial office concerned.
- (3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable, on summary conviction, to a class A fine.
- (4) In this section, a reference to improperly influencing a decision of any person in the process shall be construed as a reference to influencing such a decision other than by means of the taking of any legitimate steps in the process, the effect of which may be to influence another.

CHAPTER 2

*Applications for recommendation for appointment and for nomination for appointment or election to judicial office and making of recommendationsInvitation to apply for vacancy in judicial office

42. (1) The Minister may request the Commission to make recommendations for appointment or for nomination for appointment to judicial office, as the case may be, where—
- (a) a judicial office stands vacant, or
 - (b) he or she reasonably anticipates that there will be a vacancy in a judicial office.
- (2) The Minister for Foreign Affairs may request the Commission to make recommendations for nomination for election to the judicial office of a judge of the European Court of Human Rights or a judge of the International Criminal Court, as the case may be, where—
- (a) a judicial office of a judge of either of those Courts stands vacant, or
 - (b) he or she reasonably anticipates that there will be a vacancy in a judicial office of either of those Courts.
- (3) The Commission shall issue an invitation, through means of advertisement, for the making of applications by persons who wish to be considered for selection and recommendation for appointment or for nomination for appointment or election, as the case may be, to judicial office—
- (a) upon receipt of a request under subsection (1) or subsection (2), or
 - (b) where the Commission anticipates there will be a vacancy in a judicial office.
- (4) The Commission shall, in such form and manner as it considers appropriate, provide information to potential applicants, relevant to the judicial vacancy which is the subject of the invitation under subsection (3)—
- (a) relating to the judicial selection statement, or
 - (b) where subsection (2)(a)(ii) or (2)(b)(ii) of section 60 applies, relating to the procedures or requisite knowledge, skills and attributes, as the case may be, which are to apply in accordance with those provisions.

Applications for appointment or for nomination for appointment or election to judicial office

43. (1) Where an invitation is issued under section 42 in relation to a judicial office, a person, including a person who holds judicial office or a relevant office holder, who wishes to be considered for selection and recommendation for appointment or nomination for appointment or election, as the case may be, to that office shall make an application to the Commission in such form, and accompanied by such supporting documentation, as is specified—
- (a) in the statement of selection procedures, or

- (b) where section 60(2)(a)(ii) applies, in the procedures determined by the Commission in accordance with that provision.
- (2) An application for recommendation for appointment or for nomination for appointment or election to judicial office shall not be made to the Commission otherwise than pursuant to an invitation issued under section 42.
- (3) In this section, “relevant office holder” means a judge or other office holder referred to in any of clauses (I) to (VII) of section 5(2)(b)(i) of the Act of 1961.

Information to accompany application under section 43

44. (1) Where a person makes an application under section 43, he or she shall—
- (a) at the same time—
 - (i) confirm in writing that he or she consents to the Commission seeking information from a relevant person in accordance with this section, and
 - (ii) if a form of consent to the processing of personal data and special categories of personal data has been prescribed in accordance with section 33, furnish a signed form of such consent or, if no form stands prescribed at the time of making such application, confirm in writing that he or she consents to such processing,and
 - (b) when requested to do so by the Commission, provide it with a declaration of consent (within the meaning of the National Vetting Bureau (Children and Vulnerable Persons) Act 2012) and any other information which is required by the Commission to enable it to obtain a vetting disclosure in respect of the person.
- (2) A person who refuses to comply with subsection (1) shall not be considered for recommendation for appointment or nomination for appointment or election, as the case may be, to the judicial office to which his or her application relates.
- (3) The Commission may, having furnished a copy of the consents referred to in subsection (1)(a) to a relevant person, seek information from that person to verify—
- (a) that an applicant is an eligible person,
 - (b) information contained in an application form submitted by the applicant, and
 - (c) supporting documentation provided in accordance with the requirements specified in a statement of selection procedures under section 59(2)(b).
- (4) A relevant person shall, when requested to do so by the Commission under subsection (3) and having received a copy of the consents referred to in that subsection, provide the information requested to the extent that the information is in his or her possession or power to procure.
- (5) In this section, “relevant person” means—

- (a) a body which has or had a regulatory role in respect of an applicant, including the Judicial Council, the Legal Services Regulatory Authority, the Law Society of Ireland, the General Council of the Bar of Ireland and the Honorable Society of King's Inns,
- (b) an employer or former employer of the applicant, and
- (c) a person who engages or engaged the applicant in a contract for the provision of services.

Application under section 43 by member of Commission

45. (1) Where the person making an application under section 43 is—

- (a) the Chief Justice,
- (b) the President of the Court of Appeal,
- (c) a member of the Commission referred to in section 9(1)(c), or
- (d) the Attorney General,

he or she shall take no part in the performance by the Commission of the function of selection and recommendation of a person for appointment or for nomination for appointment or election, as the case may be, to the judicial office to which the application relates and, accordingly, shall not attend any meeting of the Commission held for the purpose of the performance of that function and, where the applicant is a member referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), shall not cast a vote in relation to any decision falling to be made by it for that purpose.

(2) Where subsection (1) applies and the applicant is the Chief Justice or the President of the Court of Appeal, he or she shall be replaced as a member of the Commission by the person specified in subsection (3)—

- (a) for the purpose of performing the function referred to in subsection (1), and
- (b) which person may attend any meeting of the Commission held for the purpose of the performance of that function and cast a vote in relation to any decision to be made by it for that purpose.

(3) The person referred to in subsection (2) is the next most senior judge who—

- (a) ranks first in precedence, after the President of the Court of Appeal, in accordance with paragraphs (c) to (k) of section 9 of the Courts of Justice Act 1924,
- (b) is not an applicant for the judicial office concerned, and
- (c) is available to serve as a member of the Commission for the performance of that function.

(4) Where subsection (1) applies and the person making the application is a member of the Commission referred to in section 9(1)(c), the Board of the Judicial Council (established under section 10 of the Judicial Council Act 2019) shall, subject to subsection (5), nominate one of its members to be a member of the Commission—

- (a) for the purpose of performing the function referred to in subsection (1), and
 - (b) which member may attend any meeting of the Commission held for the purpose of the performance of that function and cast any vote in relation to any decision to be made by it for that purpose.
- (5) A member of the Board of the Judicial Council shall, where he or she is making an application in respect of the same vacancy in a judicial office—
- (a) take no part in the performance by the Board of the function of nomination referred to in subsection (4), and
 - (b) shall not be nominated by the Board under that subsection to be a member of the Commission.
- (6) The Minister shall appoint a person nominated under subsection (4) to be a member of the Commission for the purpose of performing the function referred to in subsection (1).

Consideration of applications and conditions for making of recommendation

46. (1) Subject to section 60, the Commission shall consider applications made in respect of a particular vacancy in a judicial office in accordance with the judicial selection statement and shall not recommend an applicant to the Minister or, if appropriate, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, for appointment or for nomination for appointment or election, as the case may be, to judicial office unless—
- (a) it is satisfied that the applicant—
 - (i) is an eligible person,
 - (ii) possesses the requisite knowledge, skills and attributes set out in that statement and is of sufficient merit for such recommendation,
 - (iii) is suitable on grounds of health to fulfil the duties of the judicial office concerned,
 - (iv) has complied with the requirements of section 44(1), and
 - (v) has complied with the requirements of section 22 of the Act of 2001,and
 - (b) the Commission has interviewed the applicant.
- (2) An interview of an applicant shall, for the purposes of subsection (1)(b), be conducted by a panel of the Commission and the panel shall comprise not fewer than 3 members, selected by the Commission, at least one of whom shall be a lay member and at least one of whom shall be a member of the judiciary.

Recommendation of persons to Minister for appointment to judicial office in the State

47. (1) The Commission shall, following its consideration of applications in accordance with section 46, recommend to the Minister—

- (a) where there is one judicial office in the State to be filled in a court, 3 persons for appointment to that judicial office, and
 - (b) where there is more than one judicial office in the State to be filled in the same court, 3 persons and 2 additional persons for each second and subsequent vacancy for appointment to those judicial offices.
- (2) Where the Commission cannot, whether by reason of the number of applicants or the operation of section 46, or both, as the case may be, recommend to the Minister the number of persons specified in subsection (1)(a) but can recommend a lesser number of persons to the Minister, it shall—
 - (a) recommend to the Minister that lesser number of persons, and
 - (b) at the same time as making that recommendation, set out in writing the reasons it is unable to recommend the number of persons specified in that subsection.
- (3) Where the Commission cannot, whether by reason of the number of applicants or the operation of section 46, or both, as the case may be, recommend to the Minister the total number of persons required by the application of subsection (1)(b) but can recommend a lesser total number of persons to the Minister, it shall—
 - (a) recommend to the Minister that lesser total number of persons, and
 - (b) at the same time as making that recommendation, set out in writing the reasons it is unable to recommend the number of persons specified in that subsection.
- (4) Where the Commission determines that it cannot, whether by reason of there being no applicants or the operation of section 46, recommend to the Minister any person for the vacancy in a judicial office concerned, it shall—
 - (a) inform the Minister of that fact, and
 - (b) at the same time, set out in writing the reasons it is unable to recommend any person.
- (5) The Commission shall, at the same time as making a recommendation, or informing the Minister that it cannot make a recommendation, under this section forward the name of each person who made an application in respect of the vacancy concerned.

Recommendation of persons to Minister or to Minister for Foreign Affairs for nomination for appointment or election to judicial office outside the State

- 48. (1) The Commission shall, following its consideration of applications in accordance with section 46 which relate to a vacancy in the judicial office of a judge of the Court of Justice, an Advocate-General of the Court of Justice or a judge of the General Court recommend to the Minister 3 persons for nomination for appointment to the office concerned.
- (2) The Commission shall, following its consideration of applications in accordance with section 46 which relate to a vacancy in the judicial office of a judge of the European Court of Human Rights or a judge of the International Criminal Court recommend to the Minister for Foreign Affairs 3 persons for nomination for election to the office concerned.

- (3) Where the Commission cannot, whether by reason of the number of applicants or the operation of section 46, or both, as the case may be, recommend to the Minister or the Minister for Foreign Affairs the number of persons specified in subsection (1) or (2) but can recommend a lesser number of persons, it shall—
 - (a) recommend to the Minister or the Minister for Foreign Affairs, as the case may be, that lesser number of persons, and
 - (b) at the same time as making that recommendation, set out in writing the reasons it is unable to recommend the number of persons specified in the subsection concerned.
- (4) Where the Commission determines that it cannot, whether by reason of there being no applicants or the operation of section 46, recommend any person for the vacancy concerned, it shall—
 - (a) inform the Minister or the Minister for Foreign Affairs, as the case may be, of that fact, and
 - (b) at the same time, set out in writing the reasons it is unable to recommend any person.
- (5) The Commission shall, at the same time as making a recommendation, or informing the Minister or the Minister for Foreign Affairs, as the case may be, that it cannot make a recommendation, under this section forward the name of each person who made an application in respect of the vacancy in a judicial office concerned.

Notification to applicants of outcome of application

49. The Commission shall, at the request of a person who made an application under section 43 in respect of a vacancy in judicial office, notify the person in writing—
 - (a) whether or not he or she was the subject of a recommendation to the Minister under section 47 or to the Minister or the Minister for Foreign Affairs under section 48, as the case may be, and
 - (b) where no recommendation was made in respect of that vacancy, of that fact.

Statement and information to accompany recommendation under section 47 or 48

50. The Commission shall, in respect of each person whom it recommends to the Minister under section 47 or to the Minister or to the Minister for Foreign Affairs, as the case may be, under section 48, provide to the Minister concerned—
 - (a) a statement setting out the reasons it is of the opinion that the person is suitable for appointment or for nomination for appointment or election, as the case may be, to the judicial office concerned,

- (b) particulars of the person's education, professional qualifications, experience, character and, in the case of a recommendation under section 47, proficiency in the Irish language, and
- (c) the results of the interview of the person conducted, in accordance with section 46(2), by a panel of the Commission, and where applicable, the results of any other selection process conducted by the Commission in considering his or her application.

Appointments to judicial office in the State: recommended persons only to be considered

- 51. (1) In advising the President in relation to the appointment of a person to a judicial office in the State, the Government shall only consider for appointment those persons who have been recommended by the Commission to the Minister under section 47.
- (2) The Government shall request the Commission to confirm, prior to advising the President in relation to the appointment of a person to a judicial office, that the person concerned is an eligible person.

Nominations for appointment or election to judicial office outside the State: recommended persons only to be considered

- 52. The Government shall, in nominating a person for appointment or election to a judicial office outside the State, consider for nomination only those persons who have been recommended by the Commission to the Minister or the Minister for Foreign Affairs, as the case may be, under section 48.

Vacation of certain judicial offices before appointment to judicial office in the State

- 53. A person who for the time being—
- (a) holds judicial office outside the State,
 - (b) holds the office of judge of the International Court of Justice established under the Charter of the United Nations, or
 - (c) holds the office of judge of an international tribunal (within the meaning of section 2 of the International War Crimes Tribunals Act 1998),
- shall vacate the office concerned before the President appoints the person to a judicial office in the State.

Publication of notice of appointment to judicial office

- 54. The Government shall cause notice of an appointment to judicial office in the State to be published in Iris Oifigiúil.

Statement to Houses of the Oireachtas

55. (1) Within 30 days after the end of each year, the Minister shall cause to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas a statement of appointments made or elections to judicial office during the previous year—
- (a) by the President, and
 - (b) outside the State pursuant to nominations made by the Government.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to appointments made or elections to judicial office before the coming into operation of this section.
- (3) A statement under subsection (1) shall include—
- (a) the name of each person appointed or elected to judicial office and the judicial office to which he or she was appointed or elected, as the case may be, and
 - (b) particulars of the education, professional qualifications and experience of each person appointed.

PART 5

JUDICIAL SELECTION STATEMENT: STATEMENT OF REQUISITE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ATTRIBUTES AND
STATEMENT OF SELECTION PROCEDURESConsultation and submissions or observations at request of Commission

56. (1) Without prejudice to section 57(5), the Commission may, as it considers appropriate for the purpose of assisting it in the performance of its functions under this Part in so far as those functions relate to judicial offices in the State, consult with the President of the High Court, the President of the Circuit Court and the President of the District Court.
- (2) The Commission may request submissions or observations, within such period as is specified in the request, from any person that it considers appropriate for the purpose of assisting it in the performance of its functions under this Part.
- (3) The Commission shall, in the performance of its functions under this Part, consider the outcome of any consultation under subsection (1) and any submissions or observations received by it under subsection (2) within the period specified in the request referred to in that subsection which are relevant to the function concerned.
- (4) The Commission shall, for the purpose of sections 39(2)(c) and 58(2)(a)(vi), consult with—
- (a) the Courts Service about the needs of users of the courts with respect to proceedings being conducted in the Irish language and may, from time to time, request the Courts Service to produce a report about those needs, and
 - (b) the President of the High Court, the President of the Circuit Court or the President of the District Court, as the case may be, about the needs of users of the court of the President concerned in respect to proceedings being conducted in the Irish language in that court.

- (5) The Courts Service shall comply with a request under subsection (4)(a).

Judicial selection statement

57. (1) The Commission shall, in accordance with this section, publish a statement to be known as the “judicial selection (procedures and required competencies) statement” (in this Act referred to as the “judicial selection statement”) which shall include—
- (a) a statement of selection procedures, and
 - (b) a statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes.
- (2) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after the coming into operation of this section, prepare—
- (a) subject to section 58, a draft statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes, and
 - (b) subject to section 59, a draft statement of selection procedures.
- (3) The Commission shall, from time to time, prepare either or both of the following:
- (a) subject to section 58, a revised draft statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes;
 - (b) subject to section 59, a revised draft statement of selection procedures.
- (4) The Commission shall, in preparing a revised draft statement referred to in subsection (3) have regard to any recommendations made under section 61.
- (5) In preparing the draft statements referred to in subsections (2) and (3), the Commission shall consult with the President of the High Court, the President of the Circuit Court or the President of the District Court in relation to a statement in so far as the statement relates to judicial offices in the court of that President.
- (6) In preparing the draft statements referred to in subsections (2) and (3), the Commission may—
- (a) avail itself of the advice and expertise of a consultant or adviser appointed by the Commission under section 11(1) to assist it in the performance of its functions, and
 - (b) engage in a public consultation or consult with such person or persons as it considers appropriate.
- (7) The Commission shall provide the Minister, and the Minister for Foreign Affairs in so far as it relates to the judicial office of judge of the European Court of Human Rights or the International Criminal Court, with a draft of each statement—
- (a) pursuant to subsection (2), within a period of 15 months from the date of coming into operation of this section, and
 - (b) pursuant to subsection (3), as soon as practicable after the draft is prepared.

- (8) The Minister may extend the 15 month period referred to in subsection (7)(a) by such further period, not exceeding 6 months, as he or she determines.
- (9) The Minister, and the Minister for Foreign Affairs in so far as it relates to the judicial office of judge of the European Court of Human Rights or the International Criminal Court, shall provide his or her views (if any) to the Commission on a draft statement furnished under subsection (7) within 3 months of receipt of the draft statement.
- (10) The Commission shall, within the period of time specified in subsection (12) and having taken into account the views (if any) of the Minister and, if applicable, the Minister for Foreign Affairs provided under subsection (9)—
 - (a) adopt a statement of selection procedures and a statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes,
 - (b) include both of those statements as adopted in the judicial selection statement,
 - (c) publish the judicial selection statement on its website, and
 - (d) on each occasion on which it adopts a revised draft statement of selection procedures or a revised draft statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes, or both, publish an update of the judicial selection statement on its website.
- (11) Where an update of the judicial selection statement is published under subsection (10)(d) it shall, on publication, replace the previous judicial selection statement.
- (12) The time period referred to in subsection (10) is—
 - (a) where the Minister and, if applicable, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, give their views in accordance with subsection (9), as soon as practicable after receipt of those views but in any event no later than 3 months from the date of receipt of those views,
 - (b) where the Minister and, if applicable, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, indicate that they have no views, as soon as practicable after they so indicate but in any event no later than 3 months after those Ministers of the Government so indicate, or
 - (c) where the Minister and, if applicable, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, do not give any views, no later than 3 months after the expiration of the 3 month period referred to in subsection (9).

Statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes

- 58. (1) The requisite knowledge, skills and attributes for judicial office shall be set out in a statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (8), a statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes may—
- (a) specify different requisite knowledge, skills and attributes by reference to—
 - (i) different judicial offices,

- (ii) in the case of the judicial offices of judge of the Court of Justice, Advocate General of the Court of Justice or judge of the General Court—
 - (I) the requirements of the TFEU, and
 - (II) the criteria used by the panel, established under Article 255 of the TFEU, to assess candidates' suitability to perform the duties of the judicial office concerned,
 - (iii) in the case of the judicial office of judge of the European Court of Human Rights—
 - (I) Article 21 of the European Convention on Human Rights, and
 - (II) any recommendations, resolutions, decisions or guidelines of the Committee of Ministers concerning the selection of candidates for that judicial office,
 - (iv) in the case of the judicial office of judge of the International Criminal Court—
 - (I) Article 36 of the Rome Statute, and
 - (II) any recommendations, resolutions, decisions or guidelines of the Assembly of State Parties or its subsidiary organs concerning the selection of candidates for that judicial office,
 - (v) in the case of judicial offices in the same court, different classes of business in that court that it is reasonably anticipated a particular appointee to such office would deal with, and
 - (vi) the needs, identified by the Commission following consultations under section 56(4), of users of the courts with respect to proceedings being conducted in the Irish language,
- (b) specify, for the purposes of subsection (3)(g) and having regard to the matters referred to in paragraph (a), that successful completion of a particular education or training programme or a particular standard of programme is required, and
 - (c) prioritise different requisite knowledge, skills and attributes by reference to the matters referred to in paragraph (a).
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes shall specify that an applicant will be required to demonstrate the following, namely that he or she:
- (a) in the case of an applicant seeking—
 - (i) to be recommended for appointment to the office of ordinary judge of the Supreme Court, ordinary judge of the Court of Appeal or ordinary judge of the High Court, has the knowledge and experience specified in subsection (4),
 - (ii) to be recommended for appointment to the office of ordinary judge of the Circuit Court or to the office of judge of the District Court, has appropriate knowledge and understanding of the functions, practice and procedure of the court to which the appointment concerned relates, and

- (iii) to be recommended for nomination for appointment or election, has the knowledge and skills specified in subsection (7);
 - (b) in the case of a barrister or solicitor, the basis for whose claim to be qualified for appointment to the judicial office concerned is a provision of section 5, 17 or 29 of the Act of 1961, in his or her practice as a barrister or solicitor, as the case may be, has demonstrated a high degree of professionalism, competence and probity;
 - (c) in the case of a legal academic, the basis for whose claim to be qualified for appointment to the judicial office concerned is section 45A of the Act of 1961, in his or her role as a legal academic and also in his or her practice as a barrister or solicitor, as the case may be, has demonstrated a high degree of professionalism, competence and probity;
 - (d) will be able, allowing for any appropriate training that may first be required, to deal with judicial business in branches of the law that may not have fallen within his or her previous area of knowledge as a practising barrister, practising solicitor, legal academic or holder of another judicial office, as the case may be;
 - (e) has an appropriate awareness of the practical considerations that affect the experience of lay participants in the court system, whether as a party to proceedings, as a witness or otherwise;
 - (f) has an appropriate awareness of the diversity of the population of the State as a whole and of any matters arising from such diversity that may require special consideration in proceedings before a court;
 - (g) has—
 - (i) if the applicant already holds judicial office, undergone judicial training or participated in an appropriate level of continuing professional development education or training programmes as a judge or relevant to the role of a judge, or
 - (ii) if the applicant does not hold judicial office, participated in continuing professional development education or training programmes relevant to the role of a judge or the area of law to which the appointment concerned relates.
- (4) An applicant seeking appointment to the office of ordinary judge of the Supreme Court, ordinary judge of the Court of Appeal or ordinary judge of the High Court shall be required to demonstrate that he or she has—
- (a) an appropriate knowledge of the decisions of the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeal and the High Court, and
 - (b) an appropriate knowledge of, and subject to subsection (6), appropriate experience in, the practice and procedure of the court to which the appointment concerned relates.

- (5) In determining whether the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (4) are satisfied, the statement shall specify that regard shall be had, in particular, to the nature and extent of the practice of the person concerned in so far as it relates to his or her personal conduct of proceedings in the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeal and the High Court as either or both—
- (a) a person advocating in proceedings or as a solicitor instructing counsel in proceedings, or both, or
 - (b) a person providing legal advice to another person on the conduct of such proceedings.
- (6) A person who was appointed as a judge of the High Court, the Circuit Court or the District Court before 28 October 2014 shall not be required to demonstrate that he or she has appropriate experience of the practice and procedure of the Court of Appeal.
- (7) An applicant seeking nomination for appointment or election to judicial office outside the State shall be required to demonstrate that he or she possesses—
- (a) an appropriate knowledge, in relation to the court to which the vacancy in the judicial office concerned relates—
 - (i) of the decisions of the court, and
 - (ii) of the practice and procedure of that court,
 - (b) the language skills necessary for the vacancy concerned, and
 - (c) the ability to work as part of a team in an international environment in which multiple legal systems are represented.
- (8) A statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes shall require an applicant for recommendation for appointment to judicial office in the State to give an undertaking in writing to the Commission that, if appointed to judicial office in the State, he or she will take such course or courses of training or education, or both, as may be required by the Chief Justice or the President of the court in which the vacancy in the judicial office concerned arises.

Statement of selection procedures

- 59. (1) The procedures for the selection of persons for recommendation for appointment and nomination for appointment or election to judicial office shall be set out in a statement of selection procedures.
- (2) A statement of selection procedures shall specify—
- (a) the form of application to be completed, for the purposes of section 43, by a person who wishes to be considered for selection for recommendation for appointment or for recommendation for nomination for appointment or election to a judicial office,
 - (b) the supporting documentation to be provided by an applicant, including in relation to the education, professional qualifications, experience and character of the applicant, and relating to his or her proficiency in the Irish language,

- (c) that the applicant will be required, in accordance with subsection (1) of section 44—
 - (i) to consent to the Commission seeking information from a relevant person (within the meaning of that section) to verify the matters set out in subsection (3) of that section, and
 - (ii) when requested to do so by the Commission, to provide it with a declaration of consent and any other information required to enable it to obtain a vetting disclosure,and
 - (d) for the purposes of establishing that applicants are suitable on grounds of health to fulfil the duties of the judicial office concerned as required by section 46(1)(a)(iii)—
 - (i) the supporting documentation to be provided by applicants to establish such suitability, and
 - (ii) that applicants may be required to undergo an independent medical examination for the purposes of establishing such suitability.
- (3) A statement of selection procedures—
- (a) may provide for the short-listing of applicants on the basis of the information contained in the applications received,
 - (b) shall include a statement of the objectives in section 39(2), and
 - (c) shall—
 - (i) ensure that recognised best practice standards in recruitment processes for judicial and other related offices are adhered to,
 - (ii) subject to section 46(2), set out procedures for the interview of applicants,
 - (iii) having regard to the requirements to be satisfied in respect of the vacancy or vacancies in judicial offices to be filled, set out any other tests, presentations, exercises or other methods of selection which are to form part of the selection process, and
 - (iv) set out the standard of communication to be engaged in between the Commission and applicants.
- (4) A statement of selection procedures may specify different procedures by reference to—
- (a) different judicial offices,
 - (b) in the case of—
 - (i) the judicial offices of judge of the Court of Justice, Advocate General of the Court of Justice or judge of the General Court, any requirements of the TFEU concerning the procedures for selection of candidates for those judicial offices,

- (ii) the judicial office of judge of the European Court of Human Rights, any recommendations, resolutions, decisions or guidelines of the Committee of Ministers concerning the procedures for selection of candidates for that judicial office, and
 - (iii) the judicial office of judge of the International Criminal Court, any recommendations, resolutions, decisions or guidelines of the Assembly of State Parties or its subsidiary organs concerning the procedures for selection of candidates for that judicial office,
- and
- (c) in the case of the matters required to be demonstrated in accordance with section 58(3)(a), whether or not an applicant already holds judicial office.

Transitional arrangement: no judicial selection statement

- 60. (1) Subsection (2) shall apply where, during the period commencing on the coming into operation of section 46 and ending on the date of the publication of the first judicial selection statement under section 57, an invitation to apply for judicial office issues under section 42.
- (2) For the purposes of section 46, the Commission shall—
- (a) apply—
 - (i) where a statement of selection procedures is adopted under section 57, the procedures set out in that statement, or
 - (ii) where no such statement stands adopted, such procedures, consistent with section 59, as are determined by the Commission,
- and
- (b) require an applicant to possess—
 - (i) where a statement of requisite knowledge, skills and attributes is adopted under section 57, the requirements set out in that statement which are applicable to the judicial office to which the application of the applicant relates, or
 - (ii) where no such statement stands adopted, such requisite knowledge, skills and attributes, consistent with section 58, as are determined by the Commission.

Review by Commission and recommendations

- 61. (1) The Commission shall monitor and review—
- (a) the implementation of this Act, including in particular—
 - (i) the practical operation and application of the judicial selection statement,

- (ii) the qualifications and requisite knowledge, skills and attributes required for recommendation of persons for appointment and for nomination for appointment or election to judicial office,
 - (iii) the effectiveness of the procedures, set out in the statement of selection procedures, in achieving the objectives set out in section 39(2) in relation to membership of the judiciary in each court,
 - (iv) the effectiveness of the administrative support provided by the Office to the Commission, and
 - (v) the adequacy of the functions assigned to the Commission,
- and
- (b) international developments in the selection, recommendation and appointment of persons to judicial office, including any international instruments and conventions relevant to such selection, recommendation and appointment.
- (2) The Commission may commission research into the qualifications and other requirements for recommendation of persons for appointment and nomination for appointment or election to judicial office.
 - (3) A review under subsection (1) shall be conducted not later than 2 years after the coming into operation of this section and, thereafter, from time to time as the Commission may determine.
 - (4) The Commission shall, following a review under subsection (1), prepare a report of the findings of the review and set out such recommendations (if any) relating to the implementation of this Act as it considers appropriate.
 - (5) The Commission shall submit a report and recommendations prepared under subsection (4) to the Minister for his or her consideration.
 - (6) The Minister may, having considered a report and any recommendations submitted to him or her under subsection (5) and having consulted with the Minister for Foreign Affairs, provide his or her views to the Commission on the implementation of any of those recommendations and may identify other actions, arising from his or her consideration of the report and recommendations, for consideration by the Commission.
 - (7) The Commission shall report to the Minister on any implementation measures it takes in respect of recommendations made by it or in respect of actions identified by the Minister for consideration by the Commission under this section.
