EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

Currently, children who remain in care in hospital after birth due to illness or disability are ineligible for Domiciliary Care Allowance.

However, where Domiciliary Care Allowance is already in payment for a child before that child enters hospital for the purpose of receiving temporary medical or other treatment, Domiciliary Care Allowance continues to be payable for up to 26 weeks in a twelve-month period.

Budget 23 provides that in respect of a child (otherwise eligible for domiciliary care allowance) who remains in hospital immediately after birth for medical treatment, Domiciliary Care Allowance will be payable for up to 26 weeks in a twelve-month period. These Regulations provide for such cases where the child is born on or after 1 January 2023.
