HEATHER HUMPHREYS,
Minister for Social Protection.
Section 62(9) of the Social Welfare Consolidation Act 2005 provides that the Minister may make Regulations prescribing circumstances whereby certain work type situations are, or are not, to be treated for the purposes of jobseeker’s benefit as days of unemployment or of incapacity for work.

Article 44(1)(b) of the Social Welfare (Consolidated Claims, Payments and Control) Regulations 2007 specifies certain work type situations which despite being analogous to employment may allow a person to qualify for jobseeker’s benefit. In other words, the person is treated as unemployed.

These Regulations amend article 44 to add another work type situation whereby a person may qualify for jobseeker’s benefit. This is the situation where, under an agreement sponsored by the Workplace Relations Commission or Labour Court, that person is retained without any undertaking of work for that person in their occupation, and that person’s income from that retention of employment does not exceed €144 a week for a period not exceeding 13 weeks.
